How did you hear about Global University? _____

All Global University Students:

- It is the student’s responsibility to verify the applicability of Global University’s credits toward any educational goal. Students desiring to transfer credits to another institution must contact the receiving institution to verify GU credits will be transferable.
- E-mail is considered a primary method for communication and is intended to meet the academic and administrative needs of the University. Therefore students are expected to monitor their Global University student e-mail account on a regular basis
- Students are responsible for all shipping/duty fees for materials shipped outside the USA.
- The application/reactivation fee is non-refundable five business days after this form is received by Global University.

Concurrent/Dual Enrolled Students:

- Will be enrolled in college-level courses that are academically rigorous as is appropriate for university education. Therefore, expectations of student behavior and performance will be held to a higher standard.
- Are eligible to matriculate into a Global University degree program with advanced placement following high school graduation.
- Must pass first undergraduate course with at least a grade of 73 percent before enrolling in subsequent courses.
- Are expected to maintain a grade point average of 2.00 or higher. Students with a GPA below 2.00 after completing three courses must request the dean’s permission to enroll in additional undergraduate courses.
- May enroll in only one course at a time until 18 credits are completed with a grade point average of 2.00 or higher.
- May enroll at the reduced tuition rate for up to 32 credits or until completing high school or passing the General Education Development (GED) exam; whichever comes first.
- All fees will be the full responsibility of the student’s parent/legal guardian. Global University must receive payment in full when the student enrolls in each course.
- Global University’s cancellation and refund policy will apply if a concurrent/dual enrolled student withdraws. Please review this policy in the undergraduate catalog.

I authorize Global University to release all academic and financial records to and give authorization for my courses to my Parent/Legal Guardian (required).
