A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to Global University!

All of us here at Global are pleased to learn of your interest in advancing your training. We are delighted that you are seeking to prepare yourself for service in God's harvest field. Our catalog provides information concerning who we are, our mission, history, policies, and procedures, as well as our various plans of study. We trust you will identify a program of study to help you prepare for God's call on your life. Feel free to contact us with any questions you may have.

A unique aspect of our program is the emphasis on applied learning and ministry through our service learning requirement (SLR). This requirement allows learners to move more rapidly from theory to practical application of what they are learning. In other words, learners benefit from the integration of academic rigor with practical application throughout their studies.

Global University is composed of four schools providing a seamless approach to study, ranging in academic level from certificates (initial evangelism and discipleship courses) through graduate degrees. The four schools are School for Evangelism and Discipleship, Berean School of the Bible (offering adult continuing education courses to equip people for church leadership), Undergraduate School of Bible and Theology (offering certificates and diplomas and associate of arts and bachelor of arts degrees), and Graduate School of Theology (offering master of arts, master of divinity, and doctor of ministry degrees). Catalogs for each school are available on our website at www.globaluniversity.edu.

Global University’s learners benefit not only from increased knowledge through studying course content but also from spiritual growth and increased discipline. Our instructional design helps them gain skills for a lifetime of learning, service, and ministry. Students and alumni fill positions of ministry as teachers, pastors, and missionaries. Others serve as local, district, and national church leaders. They actively work in both open and sensitive locations, fulfilling God’s call on their lives to impact eternity where they are and wherever God leads them.

When studying with Global University, you will not be studying alone. Instead, you will join students studying in literally every time zone of the world. We operate through a worldwide network of more than 230 offices serving 500,000 students. We are committed to equipping people for service in churches, schools, and other ministries. As you study, rest assured our extensive university stands ready to assist you in any way we can.

God bless!

Gary L. Seevers, Jr., PhD
President
Greetings from the International Office of Global University!

I enjoy the rich pleasure of serving as the Chief Academic Officer for the global programs of the university. During my time serving the university, I have come to appreciate both the diversity and the unity that exists within the Global University family. Every context presents unique challenges and brings opportunities to the task of teaching and learning. As I meet our Global students and alumni, I am impressed with their commitment to excellence in ministry in all cultural situations. In these effective ministries and leaders, one sees the intersection of God’s call, their commitment, and a Global University education. The results are astounding: people are saved, churches are started, parachurch ministries are established, and bodies are healed. The Lord operates through thousands of men and women who have come through Global University’s programs.

Global University allows you to start wherever you are in your own educational journey and pursue a broad range of learning goals. Each of the four schools of Global University provide opportunity for growth as a follower of Christ and as a Christian leader. Do you want foundational instruction as a follower of Christ and a Christian leader in training? The School for Evangelism and Discipleship’s Christian Life and Christian Service series of courses would benefit you. Do you want to study Scripture for a ministerial career, a lay leadership role in your church, or your own spiritual enrichment? The Berean School of the Bible’s adult continuing education courses and programs will serve you well. Do you want an accredited undergraduate certificate, diploma, associate of arts degree, or bachelor of arts degree? Check out the programs offered by the Undergraduate School of Bible and Theology. Are you prepared for advanced studies? The Graduate School of Theology offers master of arts degrees, a master of divinity degree, and a doctor of ministry degree. Global is one university with four schools, so you will have a wide range of options from which to choose. Whichever program you select, you can be sure it will integrate faith and learning from a Pentecostal, evangelical perspective.

Our name—Global University—accurately describes us as a worldwide distance-learning school. Our regional accreditation with the Higher Learning Commission assures you of a quality education. As you enter studies with Global University, you join a student body in every time zone and nearly every country of the world. You can study where and when you want at extremely affordable costs. You will have access to faculty through a variety of means, and our online library resources provide the opportunity to investigate a subject as deeply as you wish.

Welcome to the Global University community. We are students, faculty, staff, and administrators who are all involved in “impacting eternity by winning the lost and training the found—everywhere.”

May God’s favor be with you,

David L. De Garmo, DMin
Provost
A LETTER FROM THE DEAN

Our goal for Global University’s Graduate School of Theology is to provide a level of training that is both academically challenging and saturated with the leading of the Holy Spirit so our graduates will be educated and inspired to perform their calling with a servant’s heart and in the power of the Holy Spirit.

All faculty and staff of the Graduate School of Theology are committed to serving our students as we all learn and grow with them in godliness and Spirit-led obedience to Jesus. We embrace our great privilege of contributing to training God’s kingdom ambassadors!

One distinctive of our program is that it allows our students to study while in ministry rather than to study for ministry. Most of our students continue in a full-time position while they study. They find that our academic format not only adapts to their schedules, but also enhances their ministries.

I encourage all qualified ministers to consider one of our graduate degree or certificate programs. We also welcome students who want to study for personal enrichment.

If you have any questions that are not answered in this catalog, please contact the director of the Graduate Studies Group from which you received this catalog. Best wishes in your pursuit of fulfilling God’s will for your life.

Sincerely,

Randy J. Hedlun, DTh
Dean, Graduate School of Theology

Global University (GU) utilizes tools of educational technology to expand the resources of the church. GU courses are applicable for distance-learning instruction, classrooms, learning groups, and individual study. Courses are developed with the help of qualified writers from many nations and distributed around the world in many languages. This contributes to fulfilling GU’s motto: “Impacting eternity by winning the lost and training the found—everywhere!”

Mission
Global University is a Christian university in the Pentecostal tradition that:
• integrates education and service through a worldwide network for student support.
• provides access to ministerial training from adult continuing education to the graduate level.
• produces curricular materials in multiple languages.
• serves the local church and Christian community through evangelism, discipleship, and leadership training via nonresidential distributed learning methods.

History
Global University has a distinguished heritage spanning seven decades and encompassing the achievements of two distance-learning institutions: ICI and Berean University.

ICI and Berean, similar in educational approach, mission, and services, merged to become Global University.

Global University now has four schools: (1) School for Evangelism and Discipleship, (2) Berean School of the Bible, (3) Undergraduate School of Bible and Theology, and (4) Graduate School of Theology. Students worldwide enroll in all levels of study. Global University works with Assemblies of God World Missions, US Missions, and other divisions of the General Council.

Doctrinal Statement
The doctrinal position of Global University is expressed in the following statement of faith. We believe:

• the Bible is the inspired and only infallible and authoritative written Word of God (2 Timothy 3:16).
• there is only one true God, revealed in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (commonly known as the Trinity) (Deuteronomy 6:4; Matthew 28:19).
• in the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious and atoning death, in His bodily resurrection, in His ascension to the right hand of the Father, in His personal, future return to this earth in power and glory to rule a thousand years (John 1:1).
• in the Blessed Hope—when Jesus raptures His Church prior to His return to earth (the second coming). At this future moment in time all believers who have died will rise from their graves and will meet the Lord in the air, and Christians who are alive will be caught up with them, to be with the Lord forever (Titus 2:13; 1 Thessalonians 4:17).
• every person can have restored fellowship with God through salvation (trusting Christ, through faith and repentance, to be our personal Savior) (John 14:6).
• regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely essential for personal salvation due to the fall of man (Titus 3:5).
• in water baptism by immersion and Holy Communion (Matthew 28:19).
• divine healing of the sick is a privilege for Christians today and is provided for in Christ’s atonement (His sacrificial death on the cross for our sins) (1 Peter 2:24).
• the baptism in the Holy Spirit is a special experience following salvation that empowers believers for witnessing and effective service, just as it did in New Testament times (Acts 2:4).
• sanctification initially occurs at salvation and is not only a declaration that a believer is holy, but also a progressive lifelong process of separating from evil as believers continually draw closer to God and become more Christlike (Galatians 5:16–25).
• in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost, the one to everlasting life and the other to everlasting damnation (Revelation 20:11–15).
• in the church, which is the body of Christ, and its mission to be the agency of God to evangelize the world, worship God, build the body of Christ, and demonstrate God’s love and compassion (Mark 16:15–16; 1 Corinthians 12:13; 1 Corinthians 14:2–3; Psalm 112:9).

• in a divinely called and scripturally ordained ministry for the fourfold mission of leading the church: reaching, planting, training, and serving.

Notice of Nondiscriminatory Policy
Global University employs, advances, admits, and treats, both in its employment and its educational programs, all persons without regard to their race, color, national or ethnic origin, gender, age, handicap, or status as a veteran.

Global University International Headquarters
The International Office of Global University is located in Springfield, MO, near the National Leadership and Resource Center of The General Council of the Assemblies of God USA.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY

For more information concerning the schools and programs described below and languages in which they are available, please contact your enrollment office or the International Office of Global University, or visit our website at www.globaluniversity.edu. Global University reserves the right to revise all announcements in this catalog and, at its discretion, to make reasonable substitutions or changes in requirements in order to improve academic programs.

Nondegree Programs
School for Evangelism and Discipleship
The School for Evangelism and Discipleship offers evangelism and discipleship training programs for everyone. The program offerings are concise, biblically sound, Pentecostal, and practical. The evangelism courses are designed to introduce people to the person and life of Jesus Christ. The discipleship programs are designed to help new believers follow Jesus according to a solid biblical foundation. Also included is a deeper level of discipleship which trains Christian leaders to serve in their homes, churches, and communities. Many of the courses are available in over 130 languages.

Berean School of the Bible
Berean School of the Bible offers adult continuing education programs of study. The courses offered within the Ministerial Studies diploma program satisfy educational requirements for Assemblies of God ministerial credentials as approved by the Assemblies of God, USA, and provide enrichment learning for lay leaders. Ministerial credentials are issued by the General Council Credentials Committee upon recommendation of the appropriate district. Ministerial credentials are not issued by Global University.

Degree Programs
Undergraduate School of Bible and Theology
Undergraduate School of Bible and Theology programs are designed for ministers, ministerial students, and laypersons who desire a biblical education. Degree programs are open to all with a high school diploma or its equivalent. Advanced academic placement through transfer of credit is possible for those with previous undergraduate training.

Graduate School of Theology
The Graduate School of Theology provides advanced, in-depth, specialized study of the Bible and related subjects. Its purpose is to equip students for individual research, personal scholarship, and practical application. Postbaccalaureate degrees and certificates are offered through an individually structured, distance-learning format using mentors and printed and digital materials to guide students in study and research.

2020 Calendar
Global University has a year-round open enrollment policy for independent-study students enrolled directly with the International Office. Academic Affairs Committee
The Academic Affairs Committee (AAC) is composed of the provost, the vice provosts, the executive vice president, the vice president for International Network Services, the deans of the schools, and other key leaders in the Academic Affairs Division.
The AAC serves as the chief academic policy-making body of the university; as such, it constitutes the final locus of dialogue in the formation of policies, procedures, and guidelines that relate to the Academic Affairs Division.

Regional Coordinators and Network Representatives
Global University operates worldwide through a network of regional offices that assist network offices. Regional coordinators and Network representatives promote, supervise, and coordinate the work of the university within designated areas assigned by the Global University Board of Administration. They, along with the network office staff, encourage students to pursue and achieve academic excellence.
The Global University Board of Administration and the regional coordinators form the Global Leadership Council. This council, with the assistance of the International Office staff, meets biennially to review past achievements and develop procedures, goals, and strategies to promote continued improvement and growth.

University Faculty
Individuals who serve Global University as faculty are included in the following two categories:

Resident Faculty
Global University resident faculty are those academically qualified individuals serving at the International Office whose activities consist primarily of writing, developing, and facilitating courses.

Adjunct Faculty
Adjunct faculty are academically qualified individuals throughout the Global University network who periodically write, facilitate, and evaluate Global University courses in field settings or serve as tutors for students studying independently with the university. Many hold doctorates in their fields, and all hold at least a master’s degree. Those who serve as faculty for the Graduate School of Theology hold an earned doctoral or other terminal degree.

ACCREDITATION AND ENDORSEMENTS

Accreditation
Global University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission. Contact: The Higher Learning Commission, 230 South LaSalle Street, Suite 7-500; Chicago, Illinois 60604-1411; Telephone: 800.621.7440 and 312.263.0456; Fax: 312.263.7462; Email: info@hlcommission.org; Website: http://hlcommission.org.
Global University is approved by the State of Missouri to participate in the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA). NC-SARA is a voluntary, regional approach to state oversight of postsecondary distance education. Website: http://nc-sara.org.

State Certification
The university is incorporated in the State of Missouri and is certified to operate by the Missouri Coordinating Board for Higher Education. Website: http://dhe.mo.gov.

Memberships
Global University is a member of the Alliance for Assemblies of God Higher Education (AAGHE), the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO), the Asia/Pacific Theological Association (APTA), and the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE).

Educational Benefits
The independent-study courses of Global University have been approved for educational benefit payments by the US Department of Veterans Affairs.
UNIVERSITY STANDARDS

Basic Standards of Academic Integrity
Registration at Global University requires adherence to the university’s standards of academic integrity. Many of these standards may be intuitively understood and are not listed exhaustively; the following examples represent some basic types of behavior that are unacceptable:

1. Cheating: (a) using unauthorized notes, aids, or information when taking an examination; (b) submitting work done by someone else as your own; (c) copying or paraphrasing someone else’s work and submitting it as your own.

2. Plagiarizing: submitting someone else’s work, claiming it as your own, or neglecting to give appropriate documentation when using any kind of reference material. Plagiarism, whether purposeful or unintentional, includes copying or paraphrasing materials from a study guide, textbook, or any other published or unpublished source. Words, thoughts, or ideas taken from any source must be properly documented according to the Global University Undergraduate Form and Style Guide.

3. Fabricating: falsifying or inventing any information, data, or citation.

4. Obtaining an unfair advantage: (a) stealing, reproducing, circulating, or otherwise gaining access to examination materials prior to the time authorized by the instructor or examination supervisor; (b) unauthorized collaboration on an academic assignment; (c) retaining, possessing, using, or circulating previously given examination materials where those materials clearly indicate they are to be returned to the examination supervisor or to the Global University offices at the conclusion of the examination.

Disciplinary action for not maintaining standards of academic integrity range from lowering a grade for a paper to dismissal from the program, depending on the severity of the offense.

Code of Conduct
Global University is a Christian educational institution aiming to equip students to fulfill God’s calling on their lives. Christian conduct is expected. While Global University reaches many cultures around the world, it is understood that some practices acceptable in one culture may not be acceptable in another.

As Christians we look to the Scripture to guide our conduct. Students are expected to conduct themselves according to biblical principles of behavior. Examples of such principles are found in Romans 12:9–21; Galatians 5:22–23; and Ephesians 4:1–3, 25–32. The Code of Conduct also applies to verbal and written communication with Global University representatives, faculty, staff, and students. Furthermore, it extends to all electronic communication, including threaded discussions and email with faculty and students.

Violation of the Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action, including dismissal from the program. Global University also wants each student to be aware of our Statement on Marriage, Human Sexuality, and Gender Identity that can be viewed at http://www.globaluniversity.edu/about_statement.cfm.

Disability and Academic Accommodations
Global University is committed to the provision of reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities, as defined in the Americans with Disabilities Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and state and local requirements. Students who qualify for accommodations are required to submit appropriate documentation with the Student Success Center. Your request will be considered if it:

• Is based on documentation that meets GU guidelines.
• Does not compromise essential requirements of your course or program.
• Does not impose financial or administrative burden upon GU beyond that which is deemed reasonable.

Submit your request to success@globaluniversity.edu. The Academic Success team will follow up with you to gather all required documentation. The university’s director for the Student Success Center and the dean of the school will review the submitted documentation. You will be notified via email if your request is granted or denied within 30 days of receipt of all required documentation. If you are denied services, you may file an appeal within 30 days of the decision.

Due Process of Student Rights
In all cases involving academic dishonesty, the student charged or suspected shall, at a minimum, be accorded the following rights:

1. Prompt investigation of all charges of academic dishonesty, to be conducted, insofar as possible, in a manner that prevents public disclosure of the student’s identity. Such investigation may include informal review and discussion with an official of the school prior to bringing a charge, provided that such review does not compromise the rights of the student in the formal process.

2. Reasonable written notice of the facts and evidence underlying the charge of academic dishonesty and of the principle(s) of academic integrity said to have been violated.

3. Reasonable written notice of the procedure by which the accuracy of the charge will be determined.

4. Reasonable time, if requested, within which to prepare a response to the charge.

5. A hearing or meeting at which the student involved may be heard and the accuracy of the charge determined by a neutral decision maker.
6. Review of an adverse initial determination, if requested, by an appeals committee to whom the student has access in person. Generally, implementation of sanctions will be suspended until all appeals made by the student have been exhausted.

7. Final review of an unsuccessful appeal, if requested, by the president or an advisory committee designated by the president.

Policy for Filing Student Complaints

Global University assures the public that its philosophy is to be responsive to any student complaint. Historically, any complaints received have been resolved to the student’s satisfaction. A student seeking to file a complaint or grievance should follow the steps outlined under "Tracking and Addressing Student Complaints." Global University will do everything possible to resolve the complaint expeditiously. If the student wants to contact higher authorities, he or she may do so at the state and accrediting agency levels, as described below.

The Missouri Department of Higher Education (MDHE) serves as a clearinghouse for postsecondary student complaints. The MDHE complaint policy contains information and instructions for filing a formal complaint. The policy provides that a student seeking to file a complaint with the department must first exhaust all formal and informal avenues provided by the institution to resolve disputes. The MDHE complaint policy can be accessed at http://dhe.mo.gov/documents/POLICYONCOMPLAINTRESOLUTION.pdf.

Global University’s regional accrediting agency, the Higher Learning Commission (HLC), can also receive student complaints. Information is available at: https://www.hlcommission.org/Student-Resources/complaints.html.

The HLC expects complaints and grievances to be first resolved at the institution level. Complaints should only be directed to the HLC if they are deemed to affect an institution’s accreditation.

Global University has been approved as a participating institution in the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA). If, after following the sequence referred to above, a complaint is not resolved to the student’s satisfaction, and if the state in which they live is a SARA member state (go to www.NC-SARA.org, click on “states”), they may appeal to the portal agency of their state (see http://nc-sara.org/content/state-portal-agency-contacts). The SARA complaint process can be found in the SARA Policies and Standards at https://nc-sara.org/student-complaints-process.

Tracking and Addressing Student Complaints

Global University takes complaints and grievances seriously. The Student Services Department of GU’s Academic Affairs Office maintains and monitors a complaint or grievance file. Complaints received usually concern two categories: (1) course content, or (2) the course delivery and support system.

- Complaints relating to course content are referred to the University Materials Development (UMD) Department and to the course professor. A student representative will contact the student with an answer to the student’s question(s) or a solution to the student’s problem.
- Complaints regarding the delivery and support system are referred to the Student Services Department. A student representative will contact the student to resolve the difficulty. In some cases, this prompts the creation of new policies or procedures to improve the delivery system.

In more difficult or complex situations, especially those problems spanning more than one department, the complaint is referred to the provost. As necessary, the Academic Affairs Committee will also become involved to resolve student complaints in a timely and satisfactory manner.

A student can file a grievance with Global University by choosing any one of the following contacts:

1. A student may contact a Global University faculty member or network office staff member by email, phone, fax, post/mail, or in person. Often, problems are easily resolved at this level.
2. A student may contact the Student Services Department of Global University by email, phone, fax, post/mail, or in person. Student Services personnel are trained to resolve student concerns.
3. A student may contact any administrator of Global University by email, phone, fax, post/mail, or in person. In these cases, the matter typically requires a period of investigation in order to be resolved.

Once a concern, complaint, or grievance is received, every effort will be made to resolve the issue quickly. Should a student not be satisfied with the resolution, they may appeal the decision to the International Office of Global University, directly to the Provost’s Office. Should a student not be satisfied with the resolution, the student can contact the Provost’s Office and request that the issue be addressed by the Global University Academic Affairs Committee. A decision by the Academic Affairs Committee will be deemed final.

Notification of Rights Under FERPA

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their educational records. These rights include:

1. The right to inspect and review education records within 45 days of the day Global University receives a request for access. Students should submit to the registrar a written request that identifies the record(s) they wish to inspect. The registrar will make arrangements for access and notify students of the time and place the records may be inspected. In place of inspecting the record(s), students may request that records be copied and mailed to them. In this case, students will pay postage and a copy fee of 15 cents (USD) per page.

2. The right to request the amendment of education records students believe are inaccurate or misleading. Students may ask the university to amend a record they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They must write to the registrar, clearly identify the part of the record they want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If the university decides not to amend the record as requested, the university will notify students of the decision and advise them of their right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to students when they are notified of the right to a hearing.

3. The right to request in writing that certain directory information only be disclosed with the student's written consent. Unless otherwise requested, directory information such as the student's name, mailing address, dates of attendance, enrollment status, graduation status, and other institutions attended may be released without written consent. Non-directory information such as student ID number, Social Security number, date of birth, email address, phone number, and grades may only be released with the student’s written consent except where FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. Exceptions include disclosure to federal, state, and local authorities as well as school officials with legitimate educational interest. A school official is a person employed by the university in an administrative, supervisory, academic, research, or support staff position; a person or company with whom the university has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an educational record in order to fulfill their professional responsibility.

The student has the right to file a complaint with the US Department of Education concerning alleged failures by GU to comply with the requirements of FERPA. Contact information for the office that administers FERPA is as follows: Family Policy Compliance Office; Department of Education Building; 400 Maryland Avenue, SW; Washington, DC 20202-5920; Phone: 1-800-USA-LEARN (1-800-872-5327).

INSTRUCTIONAL TECHNOLOGY AND RESOURCES

Learning with Technology
Global University prioritizes accessibility for all students, regardless of their available technological resources, and therefore offers courses both in print and via the internet and other electronic media. Students with technology and internet access may submit assignments electronically and take proctored exams online. Many courses are available for PDF download. Students without access to technology may acquire printed materials containing everything needed to complete their courses. Self-paced, independent learners may collaborate with other students using GU's online learning tools and social media.

For further information about the use of technology with GU courses and their availability in electronic format, visit Global University online at www.globaluniversity.edu.

Library Resources
The Global University Library, located at the International Office in Springfield, Missouri, holds resources that support the curriculum of GU programs and may be utilized for general research. It offers more than 25,000 physical volumes, including books, reference materials, periodicals, maps, microfiche, audio and video materials, and vertical files.

For undergraduate and graduate students, CREDO Reference, Academic Search Elite, and American Theological Library Association (ATLA) databases, which provide access to thousands of e-books, peer-reviewed journals, and general reference resources, are available via the Library website at www.library.globaluniversity.edu.

Due to lack of research requirements, Berean School of the Bible students cannot access proprietary databases. However, thousands of freely available resources are available through the Library website.

Students may also direct research questions to a reference librarian using the “Ask-A-Librarian” feature. Global University is continually expanding its online information services to support and enhance the distance learning experience.
FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Graduate Program Costs
A complete USA graduate tuition and fee schedule is published on Global University’s website at http://www.globaluniversity.edu/graduate_costs.cfm. An approximate total cost for each graduate program is provided online at http://www.globaluniversity.edu/graduate_index.cfm.

Financial Assistance
Pricing information is available from the Global University director in your area or from the International Office. If you are working with a director, all fees are paid to your director. If you are not working with a director, fees are paid to the International Office.

US Veterans Benefits
Global University has been approved by the agency for US veterans benefits. This approval is for the independent-study courses leading to an associate of arts degree, a bachelor of arts degree, a master of arts degree, a master of divinity degree, or a doctor of ministry degree. Tuition, materials, and shipping and handling are paid by the veteran upon enrollment. Reimbursement of qualified expenses is made through the US Department of Veterans Administration (VA) following certification from Global University’s VA enrollment office. Veterans who are interested in assistance should request information from Global University’s VA enrollment office in Springfield, Missouri.

Policy on Incomplete Courses Funded by VA
The time limit to complete a degree-level course is six months. If a student does not complete a course within six months, the student may request an additional six months to complete the course. Should a student fail to complete a VA-funded course, a failing grade of 50 percent will be assigned to the student’s course grade. This grade will be calculated into the cumulative grade average that appears on the student’s transcript. Reporting this grade to the Veterans Administration is required for VA students using GI Bill benefits.

Availability of Financial Reports
Global University makes available summaries from the annual financial reports as prepared by the university’s external auditor to prospective students, alumni, and the public at large. These summaries may be obtained by contacting Global University’s Chief Financial Officer.

Graduate Academic and Special Fees
Academic and special fees are paid to the appropriate Global University office at the time a student applies for admission to the Graduate School of Theology, enrolls in a course, extends an enrollment in a course, resubmits work for grading, or receives a service that requires a fee, subject to terms and conditions specified in the “Cancellation and Refund Policy.” Contact your enrollment office for a tuition and fees schedule. Approved graduate applicant and student fees include the following:

1. Application fee. A one-time nonrefundable fee for processing the student application packet and preparing a degree (or certificate) audit report for the respective degree or certificate program (if applicable), for the following types of admission:
   a. full admission
   b. special student admission
   c. transition from special student to full admission
   d. admission into additional Global University graduate studies degree or certificate programs (for students who have already earned at least one graduate studies certificate or graduate-level degree from GU)

2. Reactivation fee. A nonrefundable fee for processing the reinstatement of an inactive student to active status at the same level of studies.
3. Tuition. Required for enrollment in a course and based on the number of credits assigned to the course.
4. Doctoral dissertation project advisor fee. Required in addition to tuition when a student enrolls for a dissertation.
5. Electronic library access fee. Required fee that gives student access to electronic library resources.
6. Course materials. Includes graduate study guide, readings and resource materials, and textbooks required for a course (varies depending on individual item prices).
7. Extra mentoring time fee. May be required if mentoring time becomes excessive for a course.
8. Change of program fee. Required each time a student changes from one program to another after being matriculated into a degree program.
9. Degree or certificate audit report fee. Required when a student requests a degree or certificate audit report. Note: this was formerly referred to as a program evaluation.
10. Extension fees. Required when a student applies for any extension of a designated time limit, deadline, or due date.
11. Thesis or doctoral dissertation defense fee. Required when a thesis or dissertation defense is scheduled.
12. Thesis or dissertation defense conferencing fee. Required when the Graduate School of Theology arranges conferencing for a thesis or dissertation defense.
13. Thesis or dissertation binding fee. Required on submission of final copy of the thesis or dissertation.
14. Capstone paper or theology of ministry paper submission fee. Required when a student submits a capstone paper for evaluation for a master of arts degree... program or a theology of ministry paper for a master of divinity degree program.

15. Graduation fee. Required from each student prior to receiving a degree or certificate after all other requirements have been met.

16. Transcript request fee. Required when a student requests a transcript of credits completed.

17. DMin comprehensive exam fee. Required when a student is ready to take the comprehensive exam in the DMin program.

Cancellation and Refund Policy

We strive to develop instructional materials and programs that will be completely satisfactory to the students who enroll with us. However, if it is necessary for you to withdraw from a course, the following refund policy will apply:

1. No refund of the application fee will be made after five (5) business days.

2. You may withdraw from a course if the course status is “In Progress.”
   a. You may cancel a course enrollment within five (5) business days after the date on which your order was placed. If you cancel a course enrollment during this time, you will be given a complete refund of all tuition paid. Communication of cancellation may be made online at http://globaluniversity.libsurveys.com/gstwithdraw.
   b. You may request to withdraw from a course from five (5) business days and up to three (3) months from the date the order was placed, and be refunded 50 percent of the tuition paid.
   c. No refunds are given for course withdrawals requested after three (3) months from the date the order was placed.

3. Refunds will be given on textbooks returned in resalable condition, less a 20 percent restocking fee. No refunds will be given for Study Guides or Readings and Resource Materials.

Please report any discrepancies with the order within thirty (30) days of the invoice date.

Withdrawal Process

Graduate School of Theology
General Information

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES AND DESIGN

Global University’s graduate programs, which are provided by the Graduate School of Theology, are designed to equip students with skills and methodologies to be lifelong learners as they participate in individual research, personal scholarship, and practical application that prepares them to do advanced, in-depth, specialized study of the Bible and related subjects at the post-baccalaureate degree level.

Global University reserves the right to revise all announcements contained in this catalog and, at its discretion, to make reasonable substitutions or changes in requirements to improve or upgrade academic programs.

Mission and Goals of Degree Programs

The twofold mission of the Graduate School of Theology is to accomplish the following overarching goals:

1. Train leaders for the various ministries of the church by providing theologically sound graduate-level degree courses that furnish students with intellectually broad and deep learning activities and experiences that are responsive to their spiritual and intellectual needs.

2. Equip leaders to minister, evangelize, and teach the Pentecostal message using methods that are culturally relevant and designed to integrate faith and practice.

In the process of completing a graduate degree program with Global University, the student is guided to

1. further develop skills to communicate the gospel message through various styles of written and oral dialogue;

2. grow personally, professionally, and spiritually as he or she becomes a more effective leader within the spheres of home, church, and society;

3. demonstrate awareness and understanding of his or her cultural heritage and that of others; and

4. interact with diverse cultures in a global context.

Additionally, the doctor of ministry student will be guided to

1. exhibit continual growth in spiritual maturity,

2. integrate scholarship into ministry,

3. develop ongoing ministerial relationships, and

4. display proficiency in scholarly research and critical analysis.

Objectives of Graduate Degree Programs

Graduate degree programs represent a distinct configuration of courses that enables a student to align his or her academic study closely with personal ministry goals and interests to achieve specific objectives. Students who desire to pursue further studies will find the master of arts and master of divinity degree programs to be foundational to both research and doctoral level studies. The doctor of ministry degree program will build on that foundation to help students advance to higher levels of scholarly research and critical analysis. Program-specific objectives are listed with each program in this catalog.

Design of Degree and Certificate Programs

Global University graduate degree and certificate programs are designed to allow students to earn master of arts, master of divinity, and doctor of ministry degrees and graduate studies certificates through a structured distance-education format by utilizing mentors and printed and electronic materials to guide students in their chosen courses of study and scholarly research. Students are encouraged to think reflectively on biblical truth and ministry practices and to communicate the gospel effectively, both orally and in writing, in the specific culture in which they live.

Graduate degrees and certificates are equally accessible and affordable for those who are preparing for ministry and those who are already in full-time ministry. The curriculum is designed to blend a life-centered and pragmatic approach with academic rigor. The curriculum allows for maximum adaptability to a multicultural student body, meeting the needs of churches in a variety of different cultures. Global University’s enrollment policy allows year-round open enrollment and is not based on a fixed start-and-end semester or quarter system.
In order to achieve the stated mission and objectives, Global University graduate degree and certificate programs utilize the following components that are designed to equip students with skills and methodologies to be lifelong learners:

1. An instructional design that incorporates independent and structured research and writing to enable students to think and write both reflectively and critically about their own ministry practices, goals, and pursuits.
2. Readings that encourage students to think critically, analytically, and synthetically about a wide range of personal, professional, spiritual, and social issues, using a high level of theological reflection.
3. Practical applications for ministry and Christian service within the cultural and professional milieu of students.

Student Advisement

Global University strives to provide as much assistance as possible in planning the educational programs of its students. A faculty advisor is assigned to each student when he or she is admitted into a program. Students may contact this advisor at any time to request information or advice regarding educational planning. It is the interest and self-discipline of students, however, that will determine success in meeting educational goals. Certain courses have prerequisites or recommended sequences that students are encouraged to follow. These prerequisites and recommendations are noted for each course in the sections on “Graduate Course Descriptions.” Also see sections on “Degree (or Certificate) Audit Report” and “Specialized Studies—All Divisions.”

Faculty Mentor

Qualified faculty mentors, who have been approved by the dean to mentor specific courses, will be assigned to facilitate and assess the in-depth, applied research and writing projects to be completed by the students who enroll in a given course. The mentor will guide students in the directed coursework using a graduate study guide that lists a variety of required and recommended readings. Individual faculty mentors may, at their own discretion, assign due dates for specific writing assignments. The mentor will be available to evaluate and assign grades to student assignments, respond to questions and / or comments from students, and facilitate their understanding of subject matter in specific content areas.

Ministerial Credentialing with the Assemblies of God

Global University’s Doctor of Ministry, Master of Divinity, and all of its Master of Arts degree programs fulfill the educational requirements for ministerial credentials through the ordination level with the General Council of the Assemblies of God USA. Individuals seeking ministerial recognition or credentialing with all other organizations should follow guidelines furnished by the specific credentialing agency or organization.

Chaplaincy Training

Global University is pleased to offer our MDiv degree as recognized and accepted for chaplaincy training for the US military. Those interested in a career as a military chaplain are encouraged to call Dr. Randy Hedlun, graduate school dean, at (417) 862-9533, ext. 2358 to discuss the possibilities. For those preparing for military chaplaincy, even if an MDiv is achieved, DOD may require additional courses.

Graduate Studies Group Concept

Students outside the USA will enroll in Global University graduate degree or certificate programs through the director of an authorized graduate studies group (GSG). If a country does not have an authorized GSG, students may enroll directly with the International Office in Springfield, Missouri, USA. Some of the functions of the GSG director are to provide students and prospective students with information about Global University graduate programs, collect tuition and fees, and make learning resources available for students. At the discretion of the GSG director, students may have access to facilitated group studies. With the graduate studies group concept, faculty who serve in the capacities described below will be available to give students guidance and to assess academic assignments during their pursuit of graduate studies. Facilitators may be available at the discretion of the director of a GSG.

Group Facilitator

The director of a graduate studies group may arrange for a group facilitator to meet with the group according to a prearranged schedule to lecture, lead discussion groups, or otherwise facilitate students’ understanding of subject matter in a content area. A group-learning facilitator may or may not be the same individual as the assigned faculty mentor.
ADMISSIONS AND STUDENT STATUS

Procedures for Admission to the Graduate School of Theology

Before enrolling in individual courses, applicants must first apply and be admitted to the Graduate School of Theology and to a specific program. The procedures for admission to the Graduate School of Theology are as follows:

1. Obtain an Application Packet from the director of a Global University (known as ICI in some countries) graduate studies group or from the Graduate School of Theology section of Global University’s website. Or go directly to https://www.globaluniversity.edu/PDF/applicationGST.pdf.

2. Submit the following items for admission to the Graduate School of Theology and any degree or certificate program, completing all required forms, following all instructions, and answering all questions in the Application Packet:
   a. Application for admission for the respective program.
   b. Reference forms from a pastor/church leader and an educator/employer.
   c. Official transcripts* showing all degree-level work after grade twelve. (Official transcripts previously submitted to Global University, ICI, or Berean do not need to be resubmitted.)
   d. Biographical sketch of Christian life and service.
   e. Ministry verification form (applicants for doctor of ministry program only).
   f. Application fee for full admission to the Graduate School of Theology for the respective program.

*Transcripts must be sent directly from the institution where credit was earned to the registrar of Global University.

3. Exceptions to submission requirements are as follows:
   a. Special student admission. Submit only the application for admission. A student who wishes to change from special student to full admission status will be required to complete all steps listed in item 2. A student who has not been granted full admission status will not be matriculated into a degree or certificate program.
   b. Master of divinity or doctor of ministry as a subsequent Global University graduate degree. Submit the respective application for admission and official transcripts showing all degree-level work since full admission to Global University’s Graduate School of Theology.
   c. Graduate studies certificate after a Global University graduate degree. Submit the respective application for admission and official transcripts showing all graduate-level work since full admission to Global University’s Graduate School of Theology.

4. Send all completed forms and the respective application fee to the director of the respective graduate studies group. Students who study through the International Office should submit the application fee and components to the graduate studies representative in US Student Services.

The dean’s office will review the completed application and determine admission status to the Graduate School of Theology. The student will be notified in writing of the dean’s decision.

Admission Status

An applicant for admission to the Graduate School of Theology should be motivated to conduct research in one of the approved fields of study. The applicant is granted admission status based on the following criteria.

Effective

Full Admission

Full admission to the Graduate School of Theology and all graduate programs is granted on the basis of an applicant’s academic competency as demonstrated in the following ways:

1. Degree and grade point average. The applicant must have a bachelor's degree (BA, BS, etc.) from an accredited or recognized college or university, with a minimum grade point average of 3.00 (or its equivalent) for the institution where the last degree was earned. If the grade point average is lower than 3.00, an applicant may be granted probationary admission to the Graduate School of Theology. (Note: Probationary admission will not be granted to applicants for the doctor of ministry degree.)

2. English academic proficiency. The applicant must demonstrate ability in the English language to (a) study and communicate at a graduate level of studies using standard English grammar, syntax, and style; (b) think and communicate logically; (c) do critical analysis; and (d) organize an academic paper in an orderly fashion. (At the discretion of the dean, the applicant may be required to write and submit a five-to-ten page essay on a designated topic.) Verification that English proficiency requirements have been fulfilled is subject to approval by the dean of the Graduate School of Theology.

Provisional Admission

A master of divinity applicant may be granted provisional admission to the Graduate School of Theology pending completion of a bachelor’s degree.

A doctor of ministry applicant who has earned a master’s degree that required fewer than 78 graduate-level credits from an accredited or recognized institution may be granted provisional admission as a doctor of ministry student. The specific courses needed to satisfy the credit deficiencies will be determined after a careful review of the student’s transcript(s) of prior graduate studies, comparing them with the requirements of the Global University master of divinity degree.

A provisional doctor of ministry student will be allowed to enroll in prescribed Global University graduate courses to fulfill deficient graduate-level credit and/or prerequisite course requirements for full admission as a doctor of ministry student. Also see the “Doctor of Ministry” section.

Probationary Admission

If a master’s level applicant does not meet the minimum grade point average requirements for full admission to the Graduate School of Theology, probationary admission may be granted. The student must then earn a minimum grade point average of 3.00 for the first four graduate courses (12 credits) completed with Global University. Failure to obtain at least 70 percent on any of these courses will disqualify a student from admission to any of the graduate degree or certificate programs. The student will be notified in writing of disqualification.

Doctoral applicants will not be granted probationary admission.

Special Student Admission

An applicant may be granted special student status in the following circumstances:

1. An applicant who has a bachelor’s degree and wants to take graduate courses for personal enrichment or to transfer into another graduate program may apply for special student admission and pay all applicable fees. Special student status allows a student to enroll in a maximum of 12 credits at the graduate level. In order to enroll in additional credits, the student will be required to submit a complete application packet and pay the applicable fee.

2. An applicant who has applied for full admission to the Graduate School of Theology, but whose application packet is missing one or more official transcript(s) and/or reference form(s) may be granted temporary, provisional, special student admission to enroll in a maximum of four graduate courses (12 credits) pending receipt of missing components. After missing components are received, the student will be granted admission status based on evaluation of all components of the application packet.

Student Number

A student number is assigned by the International Office when a student’s application is processed. The student number must be used on all coursework and correspondence or electronic communication between the student and the Global University enrollment office. Under no circumstances will a student be allowed to enroll in, take a final examination for, receive a grade for, or otherwise be given credit for a course without an officially assigned Global University student number and active student status.

Student Identification Card

Any student who is enrolled in a Global University course may request a student identification card. This card will allow the student access to any institutional library that cooperates with Global University as a host school or has signed a library agreement with Global University. Host schools are found in most countries where Global University has degree-level students. A student may obtain a list of cooperating libraries for his or her country from the Global University (known as ICI in some countries) library director.

Time Limits

Start of Studies

A student who has been granted any type of admission status to the Graduate School of Theology must enroll in a course within eighteen months of notification of acceptance into the Graduate School of Theology to maintain active status.

Individual Course

The time limit for completing an individual course, including the service learning requirement, is six months from the date of enrollment in the course, except as noted in the following paragraph. Individual faculty mentors may, at their own discretion, assign due dates for specific writing assignments.

The enrollment period for RES 6913 Research Methodology and RES 8953 Dissertation Research and Proposal is nine months. The enrollment period for RES 6926 (or degree-plan-specific) Thesis and RES 8966 (or degree-plan-specific) Dissertation from Idea to Bound Volume is 2 years.

Incomplete. A course that is not completed within the six-month enrollment period will receive INC on the transcript. At the discretion of the director of a graduate studies group, a student may not be allowed to enroll in any additional course(s) until all assignments for incomplete courses are submitted.

Withdraw. If a student requests to withdraw from a course before the expiration of enrollment, a WD will be shown on the transcript for the course. A student may re-enroll in the same course with no waiting period by paying full tuition and being responsible for all assignments.

Re-enroll. A student may re-enroll in a course for which an INC or WD has been received with no waiting period by paying full tuition and being responsible for all assignments.

Retake. A student may retake a course for which an unacceptable grade has been received by paying full tuition and being responsible for all assignments. There is no waiting period to retake a course. Approval of the graduate studies group director is required for a student to repeat a course for which the student received a grade below 70 percent.
Active Students
Active students are graduate students who have had some type of course activity within the past eighteen months.

Inactive Students
Inactive students are students who have been granted full, provisional, probationary, or special admission to the Graduate School of Theology and who have not had any type of course activity during a period of eighteen months. If a student does not enroll in a course within eighteen months after being admitted to the Graduate School of Theology, his or her status becomes inactive. Students may be allowed to reactivate admission status by submitting a request for dean approval and paying a fee.

A student whose status becomes inactive must pay a reactivation fee and fulfill program requirements of the graduate catalog that is current at the time of reactivation. A student whose status remains inactive for five years or longer should reapply for admission to the Graduate School of Theology according to application procedures in effect at the time. Only transfer of credit that is applicable to the current program of study will be awarded and appear on student transcripts.

ACADEMICS

Course Assignment Requirements
Because of the non-residential nature of Global University’s master of arts degree, master of divinity degree, doctor of ministry degree, and graduate studies certificate programs, it is expected that a student will spend approximately 135 hours in study, research, and writing for each 3-credit course. The general distribution of the 135 hours per course is as follows:

1. Reading. Approximately 1,000 pages of reading will be assigned per three-credit course. The reading requirement will be identified in each graduate study guide and may vary according to the nature of the materials being studied. Electronic resources may be utilized in addition to, or as part of, the reading requirements. Doctoral program courses will require 250 to 500 pages of additional reading.

2. Interacting with questions. Each course will include a series of content, integration, and synthesis questions related to reading assignments, to which the student should respond in writing. Questions will cover the content of the material and will require the student to think critically and contextually about the subject matter.

3. Applying research techniques. The graduate study guide for each course provides students with the opportunity to clarify and/or refine writing and research techniques and methodology, as well as to develop expertise in the subject matter covered. Students are asked to apply acquired methodology and skills to their ministerial or personal context. The research and writing expertise developed throughout the coursework will enable students to do advanced research. Students also may apply acquired methodology and skills to a master’s thesis or a doctoral dissertation.

4. Writing. With the exception of biblical language courses, unit writing assignments of 4 to 8 pages (1,000 to 2,000 words) will enable the student to complete the final paper of 20 to 25 pages (5,000 to 6,250 words) that gives evidence of original graduate-level scholarship. Papers will be evaluated on the basis of form, content, and originality. All written assignments for all courses must conform to the format of Global University as presented in the Global University Graduate Studies Form and Style Guide that is current when the student enrolls in the respective course. Any exception must be approved by the dean.

All papers submitted for grading must be either typewritten or computer printed. GU reserves limited copyrights to use student assignments with the faculty and other students for research, instruction, and illustration.

5. Making practical application. Each course will provide the student with tools for practical application of concepts covered in the course and will require the student to write and submit a service learning summary of 1 to 1½ pages (250 to 375 words) that gives evidence of the student’s ability to apply these concepts in a ministry or professional setting. Also see “Service Learning Requirements” section.

6. Evaluations. A portion of the student’s grade may be determined by a two-hour proctored written evaluation at the end of a course. As with the other writing assignments, grades will be assigned on the basis of the student’s form, content, and ability to respond accurately to the evaluation questions. Some graduate courses require a student to take one or more supervised objective examinations either instead of or in addition to subjective evaluations.

Service Learning Requirements
All students are required to complete a service learning requirement for each course and submit a summary assessment report to indicate application of benefits derived from the course. The assessment report should give evidence of the student’s ability to apply concepts presented in the course to a ministry and/or professional setting.
Service Learning Process

- May be completed in a church or non-church setting.
- Should consist of any valid and meaningful ministry experience that incorporates the specific course’s content and interacts with other people.
- Will be assessed by the student’s mentor as satisfactory or unsatisfactory. Credit and a grade for the course will be granted only after the SLR report is submitted and assessed as satisfactorily completed.

Along with the SLR, students should also submit a course satisfaction survey after completing a course. The survey may be completed online.

Academic Assessment

Course objectives related to personal areas of maturation other than intellectual knowledge (affective domain) will be assessed through reflective papers, service learning requirements, practicums, and internships. Course objectives related to acquisition and processing of intellectual knowledge (cognitive domain) will be assessed through course papers, capstone papers, theology of ministry papers, theses, doctoral candidacy examinations, and dissertation projects as applicable. Biblical language skills will be assessed by supervised objective and translation exams. Skill-oriented goals will be assessed through field studies or a practicum.

Students who study at the graduate level are required to earn a grade point average of 3.00 or higher in order to receive a master of arts, master of divinity, or doctor of ministry degree, or a graduate studies certificate. A minimum grade of 70 percent (C- or 1.67 grade points) is required for a Global University graduate course to count toward fulfillment of graduate degree and certificate program requirements. A minimum grade of 80 percent is required for a graduate thesis to count toward fulfillment of master of arts or master of divinity degree requirements, or for a doctoral dissertation project to count toward fulfillment of doctor of ministry degree requirements.

The grade point average will be based on grades for all graduate-level courses that are completed with Global University. A grade below 70 percent will count in the grade point average, but it will not count toward fulfillment of degree requirements. Graduate credit will not be allowed for a graduate course that was completed at another institution with a grade below B- (or its equivalent).

Grading System

Global University uses a 100-base numerical grading system for its graduate-level courses based on the following grade percentages with equivalent letter grades and grade points:

<table>

Assessment Criteria

All projects, papers, and/or assignments submitted for evaluation will be marked with a numeric percentage according to the foregoing grading scale based on the following criteria:

1. 90–100 percent. Grades in this range are given for work that is above average or of exceptional quality for the graduate level.
2. 80–89 percent. Grades in this range are given for work that is below expectations to good for the graduate level.
3. 70–79 percent. Grades in this range are given for work that is below expectations to poor for the graduate level.
4. 69 percent or lower. This grade is given when work submitted for evaluation does not indicate a level of understanding and/or work quality conducive to acceptable completion of a graduate-level course.
5. Remedial assessment (revise). This grade will not appear on a transcript; it will appear only on individual assignments.

When any coursework submitted for evaluation receives a grade below 70 percent, a student is required to revise and resubmit it for reevaluation before proceeding with the course. A maximum of two revisions may be required (or allowed) for any one assignment. A student should not be given a grade above 80 percent for work that has been revised and resubmitted.

At the discretion of the director of the graduate studies group through which a student is enrolled, there may be a resubmission fee for each revised assignment that is presented for evaluation.

Academic Probation/Restriction

If a student’s cumulative grade point average for graduate courses completed with Global University falls below 3.00, the student will be placed on academic probation and will be restricted to taking one course at a time.

Before a student who is on academic restriction enrolls in additional courses, the student will be required to sign a statement acknowledging that he or she is aware that additional courses are taken with the understanding that a graduate degree or certificate will not be awarded with a cumulative grade point average below 3.00.

No course grade below 70 percent will be applied to a doctor of ministry, a master of divinity, or a master of arts degree or graduate studies certificate requirements. Approval of the director of the respective graduate studies group is required for a student to repeat a course for which the student received a grade below 70 percent. This policy went into effect January 1, 2014, and does not apply to existing students who began their studies prior to January 1, 2014.

Awarding of Degrees

A Global University master of arts, master of divinity, or doctor of ministry degree, or a graduate studies certificate, is granted by the board of administration of Global University only after the registrar’s office reviews a student’s records and certifies that all requirements for the respective program have been met. See the specific program sections for specific course requirements.

Student Notifications (Including Grades)

Students who enroll directly with the International Graduate Studies Center in Springfield, Missouri, USA, will be able to access final grades, order history, and communications through the Global University Student Portal. Students may direct questions about the student portal to support@globaluniversity.edu.

Students who enroll through the director of an authorized Graduate Studies Office (GSO) outside the USA will receive all academic and administrative information, instructions, and documents according to directive from the director of the respective office.

Credit System

Credits for a course are a means of measuring a student’s progress in an academic program. Credits represent the standards for the amount and quality of work required for students to complete a given course.

Global University’s academic and credit systems for measuring progress in an academic program may vary from those of other countries and other institutions. Global University requires a student to complete 45 credits to earn a master of arts degree, 78 credits to earn a master of divinity degree, 108 credits to earn a doctor of ministry degree (30 credits beyond course requirements for a Global University or equivalent master of divinity degree), and 18 credits to earn a discipline-specific graduate studies certificate. At the graduate level, a credit (sometimes referred to as a semester credit or semester credit hour) represents the equivalent of approximately 45 hours of time spent in academic engagement by the student.

The credit system was developed by accrediting associations in an attempt to ensure that minimum standards had been met in the teaching of any post-secondary course or subject. When a student completes a course at one institution, it is important to know how this study relates to a course taught at other institutions. This information is especially useful if the student wishes to transfer credits earned at one university to another university or post-secondary institution. The credit system makes it possible to make such comparisons.

Transfer of Global University Credit

Global University’s degree courses have been accepted for transfer of credit by many accredited colleges, universities, and seminaries around the world. A student who is interested in transferring credit to a specific institution should contact the school to determine the number of credits the school may allow in transfer from Global University. It is the responsibility of the student, however, to verify the applicability of Global University’s credits and degrees toward any individual educational or professional goal.

Global University Transcripts

A transcript of degree-level coursework completed through Global University is available upon request and / or authorization of the student. An unofficial transcript may be faxed or an official transcript may be mailed. Official transcripts are imprinted with the Global University seal and are issued only by the Registrar’s Office in Springfield, Missouri. In order to protect the security of student records, Global University does not e-mail transcripts. Alternatively, students may view and print their GU Student Subject list via the student portal which can be accessed through Global University’s website.

A Transcript Request Form is available on the Global University website. Students may mail or email a completed and signed transcript request form to::

Mail: Global University—Registrar’s Office
1211 South Glenstone Avenue
Springfield, MO 65804-0315 USA

Email: transcriptrequest@globaluniversity.edu

Students who maintain current contact information in their Global University records have the option to submit transcript requests via Global University’s website. Students who submit a transcript request via the website may be asked to complete and sign a transcript request form if the email address from which the website request originates does not match the student’s email address on file at Global University.

2020 Graduate School of Theology Catalog
A Global University transcript may list the number of credits transferred from other qualified institutions; however, grade point averages are determined only on the basis of courses completed at Global University.

Transfer of Credit from Other Institutions

Global University accepts transfer of credit from other institutions of higher learning with recognized accreditation in the following ways:

1. A maximum of 6 graduate-level credits into a graduate studies certificate program.
2. A maximum of 9 graduate-level credits into a master of arts degree program.
3. A maximum of 54 graduate-level credits into a master of divinity degree program. Any combination of transfer credits and advanced standing credits cannot exceed 54 towards a MDiv degree.
4. A maximum of 3 doctoral-level credits (beyond master of divinity) into a doctor of ministry degree program.

Each course considered for transfer of credit must be compatible in content to the Global University graduate degree or certificate program chosen by the student and must have a minimum grade of B- (or its equivalent). Transferred credits may not be substituted for RES 5023 Graduate Research and Writing: Principles and Practice, RES 6913 Research Methodology, RES 6926 (or degree-plan-specific) Thesis, RES 8953 Dissertation Research and Proposal, RES 8966 (or degree-plan-specific) Dissertation from Idea to Bound Volume. Any deviation from this policy will be at the discretion of the dean.

Transfer of credit previously awarded will be reevaluated for inactive students who reactivate into a current program of study and active students who change to a different program of study. Only transfer of credit that is applicable to the current program of study will be awarded and appear on student transcripts.

Regardless of prior degrees or credits earned, waived, and/or transferred, a student must complete a minimum of 9 additional credits with Global University for a Master of Arts degree, 24 additional credits for a master of divinity degree, 27 additional credits for a doctor of ministry degree, and 6 additional credits for a graduate studies certificate after being admitted to the respective degree or certificate program.

Experience-Based Learning

No credit will be given for experience-based learning in lieu of taking graduate-level courses for credit.

Degree (or Certificate) Audit Report

The degree (or certificate) audit report reflects the student’s academic progress toward the completion of a graduate level degree or certificate program. This report will include a summary of the status of the current degree or certificate, including all the following that apply to the program: Global University coursework completed or in progress, graduate level credit transferred from other accredited or recognized institutions, reduction of credit based on undergraduate studies, biblical language waiver based on undergraduate credit (does not reduce credit requirements for a program), and additional courses required for the program. Transfer of credit previously awarded will be reevaluated for inactive students who reactivate into a current program of study and active students who change to a different program of study. Only transfer of credit that is applicable to the current program of study will be awarded and appear on student transcripts.

Payment of the application fee entitles a student to one audit report for the respective degree or certificate program. A student may request additional audit reports by submitting a Request for Student Service form to degreeaudit@gLOBALuniversity.edu and paying the audit report fee. Also see sections on “Transfer of Credit from Other Institutions.”

Students Who Enrolled Prior to 2019

Students who started their studies with Global University prior to the issuance of this catalog may continue to follow the program requirements as stated in the catalog that was current when they enrolled. A student may elect to modify his or her program to meet the requirements of Global University for degree or certificate plans listed in the current catalog. If a student becomes inactive or does not complete a degree or certificate program within the time limit specified for the program, the student will be required to fulfill program requirements as stated in the catalog that is current at the time the student’s status changes from inactive to active, or at the time the student exceeds the time limit for the earlier program. All requests for exceptions must be submitted in writing and are at the discretion of the dean.

Course and Program Revisions

Global University reserves the right to revise all announcements contained in this catalog and, at its discretion, make reasonable substitutions or changes in requirements to improve or upgrade academic programs.
Course Numbering System

Global University’s courses are identified by a code of three letters plus four digits. The following course categories are incorporated in the numbering system for Global University graduate-level (post-baccalaureate) courses:

1. Course categories. The first three letters indicate the academic content area of the course:

   Biblical Studies Division
   - BIB  Bible
   - BNT  Bible New Testament
   - BOT  Bible Old Testament
   - THE  Theology

   Ministerial Studies Division
   - CHP  Chaplaincy
   - EDU  Education
   - LDR  Leadership
   - MIN  Ministries
   - MIS  Missions

   General Education Division
   - RES  Research

2. Course level. The first digit indicates the level of the course (5, 6, 7, and 8 represent graduate-level).

3. Course identifier. The second and third digits serve as numerical identifiers.

4. Course credit. The final digit indicates the credit value.

An example is BIB5033 The Bible as Literature:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course Category</th>
<th>Course Identifier</th>
<th>Credit Value</th>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(Bible)</td>
<td>BIB 5 03 3</td>
<td>(3 Credits)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

All Global University graduate courses are approved by outside reviewers and are subject to review by a content specialist. Global University’s graduate-level course writers hold earned doctoral or terminal degrees from accredited institutions and are chosen based on expertise in a given field. The curriculum is designed to allow students to engage in original, guided research in addition to structured learning activities.
Two master of arts degree programs are available:

1. Master of Arts in Biblical Studies
2. Master of Arts in Ministerial Studies

- Students must complete 45 graduate credits beyond the bachelor's degree.
- Students may choose to write a 6-credit thesis as part of the 45 required credits.
- Students who do not complete a thesis as a part of a master of arts degree plan are required to submit a capstone paper in addition to completing the 45 credits required for the degree.
- Both MA degrees allow students to choose a broad field degree plan with no specialization or a degree plan with a specified concentration.

Choices for the Biblical Studies program are

1. Broad Field Plan and

Choices for the Ministerial Studies program are

1. Broad Field Plan,
2. Education Concentration,
3. Intercultural Studies Concentration, and
4. Leadership Concentration.

See section for “Graduate Degree Plan Requirements” for courses required for specific graduate degree plans.

Through various types of research activities, each program is designed to prepare qualified students for a high level of service and proficiency in present and future ministry activities.

Master of arts degree programs require a student to complete 45 credits of graduate courses from the following three classifications:

1. Core courses: 24 credits
2. Plan-specific courses: 12 to 15 credits
3. General elective courses: 6 to 9 credits

A capstone paper (no credit value) is required for all master of arts degrees that do not include a thesis. See section on “Graduate Degree Plan Requirements” for specific course requirements for master of arts degree options.

MA Advanced Standing

Students who have earned credits in religious studies (Bible, theology, ministry, missions) from approved colleges and universities may request exemption from certain required courses in the MA degree program, thus granting them Advanced Standing. Life experience does not qualify for Advanced Standing. The following rules apply to MA Advanced Standing:

1. Full Advanced Standing of nine credits will be granted to students who have earned a bachelor degree from an approved school in a ministry-related field, such as Bible, theology, missions, or ministry. Students with full Advanced Standing will complete 36 credits to earn the MA degree.
2. Advanced Standing cannot exceed nine credits.
3. For students whose degree is not in a ministry-related field, Advanced Standing is considered for undergraduate courses with satisfactory credit value and content in foundational or advanced study in Old Testament, New Testament, and theological subjects. A minimum grade of 80 percent is required for each qualifying course. The student must submit official transcripts of all undergraduate credits to be considered for Advanced Standing.
4. Advanced Standing must be requested from the registrar's office prior to enrollment in the first course.
5. Advanced Standing will be granted to qualifying students at the rate of no more than one graduate credit for each two undergraduate credits. Partial course advanced standing will not be granted.
6. Advanced Standing may be granted for the courses BIB5033 The Bible as Literature: Theory and Methodology,

Transfer of Credit from Other Institutions

Global University accepts transfer of up to a maximum of nine graduate-level credits into a master of arts degree program from other institutions of higher learning with recognized accreditation.

Each course considered for transfer of credit must be compatible in content to the Global University graduate degree or certificate program chosen by the student and must have a minimum grade of B- (or its equivalent). Transferred credits may not be substituted for RES 5023 Graduate Research and Writing: Principles and Practice, RES 6913 Research Methodology, RES 6926 (or degree-plan-specific) Thesis. Any deviation from this policy will be at the discretion of the dean.

Transfer of credit previously awarded will be reevaluated for inactive students who reactivate into a current program of study and active students who change to a different program of study. Only transfer of credit that is applicable to the current program of study will be awarded and appear on student transcripts.

MA in Biblical Studies Outcomes

The Master of Arts in Biblical Studies curriculum is designed for the student who desires to preach, write, or teach Bible and theology in a variety of educational and ministerial settings. It is designed to provide training in the exegesis and interpretation of Scripture. The student is required and encouraged to think critically, analytically, and synthetically. Special attention is given to preparing students to teach and minister the uniqueness of the Christian faith from a Pentecostal perspective. Completion of the Master of Arts in Biblical Studies equips the student to do the following:

1. Teach Bible and theology in Bible schools and colleges, Christian schools, and other educational settings.
3. Develop and practice valid systems of biblical hermeneutics and exegesis.
4. Develop a strong Pentecostal theological perspective.
5. Communicate the gospel message effectively within his or her cultural context and cross-culturally.
6. Obtain, through instruction and practice, knowledge and skills to write scholarly and theologically sound papers for publication.
7. Engage in research and studies beyond the MA degree.

MA in Ministerial Studies Outcomes

The Master of Arts in Ministerial Studies curriculum is designed for the student who desires to serve in one of the ministries of the church, especially that of pastor, evangelist, or teacher. In-depth research and studies require and encourage the student to think critically, analytically, and synthetically about ministry-related issues. Special attention is given to preparing students to teach, lead, and minister the uniqueness of the Christian faith from a Pentecostal perspective. Completion of the Master of Arts in Ministerial Studies equips the student to do the following:

1. Minister and serve with professional excellence as pastor, educator, leader, missionary, and support staff within church, missions, and educational organizations.
2. Integrate various approaches to biblical and theological studies into ministry.
3. Develop and practice valid systems of biblical hermeneutics and exegesis.
4. Engage in advanced theological reflection that will improve ministry skills and practice.
5. Develop a strong Pentecostal theological perspective.
6. Exhibit writing and speaking skills that are necessary in ministerial practice and research.
7. Engage in research and studies beyond the MA degree.

Program Change

A student may request a program change at any time. If a degree audit has already been completed, a change of program fee will apply. If a degree audit has not been completed, no fee will be charged.

If Global University requests that a student change from one program to another, a change of program fee and/or degree (or certificate) audit fee will not be required.

Time Limit for a Master of Arts Program

A master of arts student should complete all degree plan requirements (including the thesis or capstone paper, as applicable) within seven years from the date of enrollment in the first graduate course with Global University. Changing from one master of arts plan to another does not allow additional time to complete master of arts degree requirements.

Biblical Language Requirements

All students who receive a Master of Arts in Biblical Studies (New Testament concentration) are required to complete 9 credits of Greek biblical language. A background in these original languages of the Scriptures is required for some graduate courses and will be helpful for all biblical studies courses.

Some graduate-level biblical language courses require supervised examinations that may include objective and translation components. They may also require subjective evaluation components.
Practicum Requirements
A student may enroll in a practicum as an elective for a master of arts degree according to the respective degree plan options.
A student is expected to engage in at least 45 hours of ministry activities directly related to the practicum requirements and objectives over a three-month period. This is in addition to the time required to complete the required reading and writing elements of the practicum. Specific practicum designs and settings may require a greater time commitment.
The time limit to complete the practicum is six months from the date of enrollment in the course.

Master’s Thesis Requirements
Students who elect to write a thesis as a part of a master of arts degree program will be required to enroll in and write the thesis on an approved subject or topic that is specific to the degree plan the student has chosen.
A student may complete only one thesis for any graduate degree program.
Students who choose to write a thesis are encouraged to begin thinking about a thesis topic immediately after admission to Global University’s Graduate School of Theology.

Enrollment in the thesis and appointment of a thesis committee will be allowed after a student has completed RES 6913 Research Methodology and is within 12 credits of completing all other course requirements for the degree being sought. See “Course Descriptions” for the thesis course number for a specific degree plan or content area.
The time limit to complete the thesis is two years from the date of enrollment in the thesis.

Capstone Paper Requirements
A student who does not write a thesis as part of a master of arts degree plan must write and pass a capstone paper in addition to completing the 45 credits required for the specific master of arts degree program chosen. Students will be required to pay a capstone paper submission fee. The capstone paper must be successfully completed before the end of the time limit specified for the program.
Complete instructions for completing the capstone paper are available upon request or by download from: http://www.globaluniversity.edu/pdf/CapstonePaperRequirements.pdf.
Master of Arts Degree Requirements

Global University’s master of arts degree programs require students to complete 45 credits of 3-credit courses. Students may choose to write a 6-credit thesis in lieu of two 3-credit courses. A concentration requires 18 credits within the specified content area. Required core courses include one or more 3-credit courses that will apply to the content area for each degree plan option. Core courses should be taken prior to plan-specific courses. Plan-specific course options are listed for each degree plan. See “Course Descriptions” section for additional choices for general electives. Master of arts degree plan requirements follow. See the section above on Advanced Standing for information about reducing the total number of required credits.

Master of Divinity Degree Program

MASTER OF DIVINITY (MDIV) DEGREES—78 CREDITS

The master of divinity degree program allows students to choose to follow two distinct tracks:
1. Biblical Language Track
2. Christian Ministry (English Language) Track

• Students must complete 78 graduate credits beyond the bachelor’s degree.
• Students who have not completed a thesis as part of an earlier graduate degree are strongly encouraged to do a 6-credit thesis.
• Students who do not complete a thesis as part of the master of divinity degree program will be required to submit a theology of ministry paper in addition to completing all required credits.
• Students may be allowed to apply all credits from a previous Global University MA degree and graduate certificate to a MDiv degree.

Global University’s master of divinity degree program requires a student to complete 78 graduate credits from the following classifications:

Biblical Language Track

Biblical Studies courses: 39 credits (13 courses)
• New Testament: 12 credits (4 courses)
• Biblical Language: 6 credits (2 courses)
• Old Testament: 12 credits (4 courses)
• Theology: 9 credits (3 courses)

Ministerial Studies courses: 24 credits (8 courses)
• Education: 6 credits (2 courses)
• Leadership: 6 credits (2 courses)
• Ministries: 6 credits (2 courses)
• Missions: 6 credits (2 courses)

General Education courses: 6 credits (2 courses)
• History: 3 credits (1 course)
• Research: 3 credits (1 course)

General Elective courses: 9 credits (3 courses or 1 course plus 6-credit thesis)

Twelve credits of biblical language are required, but Greek language courses completed at the undergraduate level may be used to waive up to 6 biblical language credits. See details below under “Biblical Language Requirements.”

Specific course requirements for the master of divinity degree are listed in the section on “Graduate Degree Plan Requirements.”

Christian Ministry (English Language) Track

Biblical Studies courses: 36 credits (12 courses)
• New Testament: 12 credits (4 courses)
• Biblical Language: 3 credits (1 course)
• Old Testament: 12 credits (4 courses)
• Theology: 9 credits (3 courses)

Ministerial Studies courses: 27 credits (9 courses)
• Education: 6 credits (2 courses)
• Leadership: 6 credits (2 courses)
• Ministries: 9 credits (3 courses)
• Missions: 6 credits (2 courses)

General Education courses: 6 credits (2 courses)
• History: 3 credits (1 course)
• Research: 3 credits (1 course)
General Elective courses: 9 credits (3 courses or 1 course plus 6-credit thesis)

For the English Language Track a three-credit course BIB 5543 Foundations of Biblical Language is all that is required. See details below under “Biblical Language Requirements.”

NOTE: A thesis written as part of a master of arts program will not waive the requirement for a theology of ministry paper even though credits from the master of arts thesis may be used to fulfill the thesis requirement for the master of divinity program. A student who writes a thesis for a master of arts degree and a second thesis for a master of divinity degree will not be required to write a theology of ministry paper.

Specific course requirements for the master of divinity degree are listed in the section on “Graduate Degree Plan Requirements.”

Admission Requirements

Applicants must have completed a bachelor’s degree from an accredited or recognized school with a minimum GPA of 3.00.

Credit Reduction Policies

• A MDiv student with an undergraduate degree from Global University or another accredited or recognized institution may receive a reduction of up to 21 graduate equivalency credits in the same area. The maximum waiver granted will be based on a ratio of 2 undergraduate credits for 1 graduate credit. Eligible credits will be determined by review of official transcripts that are on file at Global University.

• Global University will apply up to 36 credit hours earned from a previous graduate-level Global University degree program (if applicable).

• Credits earned in a Global University graduate studies certificate may be applied to the MDiv degree.

• The cumulative total of credits from a GU master of arts degree, transfer credits from other accredited institutions, and reduction of credit may not exceed 54 hours.

• Every MDiv candidate must complete at least 24 additional hours of graduate-level credit with Global University.

Transfer of Credit from Other Institutions

Global University accepts transfer of up to a maximum of 36 graduate-level credits into a master of divinity degree program from other institutions of higher learning with recognized accreditation.

Each course considered for transfer of credit must be compatible in content to the Global University graduate degree or certificate program chosen by the student and must have a minimum grade of B- (or its equivalent).

Transferred credits may not be substituted for RES 5023 Graduate Research and Writing: Principles and Practice, RES 6913 Research Methodology, or RES 6926 (or degree-plan-specific) Thesis. Any deviation from this policy will be at the discretion of the dean.

Transfer of credit previously awarded will be reevaluated for inactive students who reactivate into a current program of study and active students who change to a different program of study. Only transfer of credit that is applicable to the current program of study will be awarded and appear on student transcripts.

MDiv Outcomes

The MDiv is regarded as the first professional degree in ministerial and biblical studies and is designed to prepare students for full-time Christian service: pastoral ministry, church administration, or teaching at the Bible institute or baccalaureate level. Special attention is given to preparing students to teach and proclaim the uniqueness of the Christian faith from a Pentecostal perspective. Students who desire to pursue a doctoral degree will find the master of divinity degree to be foundational for research at the doctoral level. Completion of the master of divinity equips the student to do the following:

1. Teach in Bible schools and colleges, pursue higher educational goals, lead and write for Pentecostal churches in multiple countries and cultures, and be a servant-oriented leader
2. Exhibit character and faith through maturity in personal Christian living, strong interpersonal skills, and servant-oriented leadership
3. Employ valid methods of biblical exegesis
4. Contextualize biblical knowledge and interpretational methods to the needs of his or her community
5. Develop a strong Pentecostal theological perspective
6. Prepare and deliver well-organized, clearly-presented, biblically-based sermons and teaching plans
7. Employ critical thinking and research techniques
8. Engage in research and studies beyond the master of divinity degree

Program Change

A student may request a program change at any time. If a degree audit has already been completed, a change of program fee will apply. If a degree audit has not been completed no fee will be charged.

If Global University requests that a student change from one program to another, a change of program fee and/or degree (or certificate) audit fee will not be required.

Time Limit for an MDiv Degree Program

A student should complete all degree requirements for an MDiv degree within ten years from the date of enrollment in the first graduate course with Global University after being approved as a master of divinity student. This includes the thesis or theology of ministry paper, as applicable, and may require the student to take courses concurrently and/or complete some courses in less than the six-month enrollment period.

Biblical Language Requirements

All students who receive an MDiv degree (biblical language track) are required to complete 12 credits of Greek and/or Hebrew biblical language studies. Greek language courses completed at the undergraduate level may be used to waive up to 6 biblical language credits in the MDiv. A background in these original languages of the Scriptures is required for some graduate courses and will be helpful for all biblical studies courses. BIB 5543 Foundations of Biblical Language is the only course required for the English Language track of the MDiv.

A minimum of 12 credits of biblical language are required prior to a student being granted full admission to a doctor of ministry (Bible and theology specialization) degree program.

Some graduate-level biblical language courses require supervised examinations that may include objective and translation components. They may also require subjective evaluation components. See the section on “Graduate Degree Plan Requirements” for additional notes on biblical language requirements.

Practicum Requirements

All students who receive an MDiv are required to complete a 3-credit field-based practicum project that will provide a supervised learning experience to make practical application of academic content covered throughout the degree program.

A student is expected to engage in at least 45 hours of ministry activities directly related to the practicum requirements and objectives over a three-month period. This is in addition to the time required to complete the required reading and writing elements of the practicum. Specific practicum designs and settings may require a greater time commitment on the part of the student.

A practicum project may be fulfilled in a variety of settings, such as a local church, a parachurch ministry, a mission trip, or a Christian school, and may be contextualized to the venue and needs of the student. All practicum projects must be approved by the director of the graduate studies group through which the student is enrolled.

A student must be within 12 credits of completing all other coursework for the respective degree (6 credits for a certificate) before enrolling in a practicum. Credit for only one practicum may be applied to a degree or certificate.

The time limit to complete the practicum is six months from the date of enrollment in the course.

Master’s Thesis Requirements

Students who write a thesis as part of a master of divinity degree program will be required to write the thesis on an approved subject or topic that relates to ministry, theology, or biblical studies.

A student who has not completed a thesis as a part of an MA degree program and is admitted to the MDiv degree program is strongly urged to write a thesis for general elective or division elective credit as a part of the MDiv degree program. A student who has completed a thesis as a part of an MA degree program and is admitted to the MDiv degree program may write another thesis in a different content area as a part of the MDiv degree requirements. A student may complete only one thesis for any graduate degree program.

Students who choose to write a thesis are encouraged to begin thinking about a thesis topic immediately after admission to Global University’s Graduate School of Theology. Enrollment in the thesis and appointment of a thesis committee will be allowed after a student has completed RES 6913 Research Methodology and is within 12 credits of completing all other course requirements for the degree being sought. See the sections on “Master of Divinity Degree Requirements” and “Course Descriptions” for the thesis course number for a specific degree plan or content area.

The time limit to complete the thesis is two years from the date of enrollment in the thesis.

Theology of Ministry Paper Requirements

A student who does not write a thesis as part of a master of divinity degree program will be required to write a theology of ministry paper in addition to completing the 78 credits required for the master of divinity degree program. Students will be required to pay a theology of ministry paper submission fee. The student must receive a passing grade on the theology of ministry paper to graduate with the master of divinity degree program. Those choosing to write a theology of ministry paper must successfully complete it before the end of the time limit specified for the complete program.

Complete instructions for the theology of ministry paper are available upon request or may be downloaded from the Global University website at https://www.globaluniversity.edu/pdf/TheologyOfMinistryPaperRequirements.pdf.
Master of Divinity (MDiv) Degree Requirements

Students anticipating entry into the Doctor of Ministry–Biblical Studies and Theology specialization must complete the requirements of the Master of Divinity–Biblical Language Track. Students anticipating entry into the Doctor of Ministry–Church Ministries specialization may complete the requirements of either the Master of Divinity–Biblical Language or the Master of Divinity–English Language Track.

Global University’s master of divinity degree program requires students to complete 78 credits of 3-credit courses. A student may choose to complete a 6-credit thesis in lieu of two 3-credit elective courses in a division-specific or general elective category. The thesis is strongly encouraged for students who have not written a thesis as part of a master of arts degree program. Students who have already completed a thesis as part of a master of arts degree program may choose to complete two 3-credit elective courses in a specific or general elective category, or may write another thesis in a different content area as part of the master of divinity. Core courses should be taken prior to other required courses. Course options are listed for each content category. See course descriptions for additional choices for general electives. Master of divinity degree requirements follow.

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY (DMIN) DEGREES—30 CREDITS

The DMin degree program allows students to choose one of two specializations:

1. Biblical Studies and Theology
2. Church Ministries

- Students must complete 30 graduate credits of doctoral studies, for a total of 108 graduate credits beyond the bachelor’s degree.
- Students who have earned a master’s degree of fewer than 78 credits will be required to complete additional credits equivalent to course requirements for Global University’s same-discipline master of divinity degree.
- Students who have not completed a thesis as part of an earlier graduate degree are strongly encouraged to complete a 6-credit thesis as part of fulfilling course requirements for the same-discipline master of divinity degree.
- The biblical studies and theology specialization requires 12 credits of Greek language as part of the 78 graduate credits required for full admission to the DMin program.
- Verifiable ministerial accreditation/credentials are required for admission and must be maintained through completion of the DMin.
- A minimum of three years of active ministry experience is required for admission.

Global University’s doctor of ministry degree program requires a student to complete 30 graduate credits from the following classifications:

- Doctoral core courses: 9 credits (3 courses)
- Doctoral plan-specific courses: 12 credits (4 courses)
- Doctoral dissertation project: 9 credits (2 courses)

The doctoral dissertation project requires enrollment in a 3-credit dissertation research and proposal course and a 6-credit dissertation writing and defense course.

See section on “Graduate Degree Plan Requirements” for specific courses required for a doctor of ministry degree.

Admission Requirements

Additional requirements for full admission as a doctor of ministry student include the following:

1. A master’s degree from an accredited institution with a grade point average of 3.00 (or its equivalent—no probationary admission)
2. Satisfactory completion of at least 78 graduate credits, corresponding to the requirements for the Global University master of divinity degree (Deficiencies may be satisfied under provisional admission status prior to beginning coursework for the doctor of ministry degree.)
3. If enrolling in the Biblical Studies and Theology specialization, successful completion of at least two years (minimum of 12 credits) of biblical language, of which a minimum of one year (minimum of 6 credits) must be biblical Greek.
4. Current ministerial credentials
5. A minimum of three years of active ministry experience
6. Commitment to remain active in ministry during studies for the doctor of ministry degree

A doctor of ministry student who has not been granted full admission status will not be allowed to begin coursework that is required for the 30-credit doctor of ministry degree.

DMin Outcomes

The doctor of ministry degree programs are designed to enhance the expertise of students who are in full-time Christian service and prepare them academically, spiritually, and professionally to serve. The DMin is regarded as a terminal degree in ministerial and biblical studies. Special attention is given to preparing students to research, teach, and proclaim the uniqueness of the Christian faith from a Pentecostal perspective. Students pursuing a doctoral degree will build upon foundational academic and research skills acquired at the master’s degree level.
Completion of the DMin program equips the student to do the following:

1. Lead research projects, teach in seminars, write for scholarly Pentecostal publications and organizations in multiple countries and cultures, and author textbooks and other scholarly and ministry-related publications
2. Exhibit a deepening of personal spiritual disciplines and maturity, integrating them into the traditional Pentecostal heritage and experience through the ethical application of biblical principles in daily life and ministry
3. Apply in a practical manner knowledge from academia and research to life experience in daily ministry activities
4. Create and/or renew support systems for ministry development and longevity
5. Develop solid biblical relationships with peers to attain and sustain joint efforts that are mutually beneficial for long-term effectiveness
6. Demonstrate ability to present solid biblical relationship practices both orally and in writing to provide an enduring legacy to the church
7. Develop advanced research skills and methodologies that will lead to proficiency in research and critical analysis at the highest levels of academic scholarship
8. Integrate faith and academia to reach valid and informed conclusions for application to ministry
9. Train others in the research and critical analysis process to enable them to reach valid and informed conclusions and make wise application of scholarship in ministerial and academic settings

Doctoral Candidacy Requirements

A student is admitted to doctoral candidacy after being fully admitted as a doctor of ministry student, completing 21 credits of doctor of ministry core and specialization courses, and successfully completing the doctoral candidacy exam.

Program Change

When a student applies to the Graduate School of Theology for admission as a doctor of ministry student, a degree audit report will be completed if the student qualifies for transfer of credit. A student may request a program change at any time. If a degree audit has already been completed when the change is requested, a change of program fee will apply. Any transfer of credit previously awarded will be reevaluated for students who change to a different program of study. Only transfer of credit that is applicable to the current program of study will be awarded and appear on student transcripts. Also see sections on "Degree (or Certificate) Audit Report" and "Transfer of Credit from Other Institutions."

DMin Prerequisites and Credit Deficiencies

A student who has earned a master of arts or equivalent degree comparable to that offered by Global University, but who has not previously earned a degree comparable to the 78-credit master of divinity degree offered by Global University, may be granted provisional admission as a doctor of ministry student.

A student who has been granted provisional admission must satisfy the course requirements for the master of divinity degree, as offered by Global University, prior to being granted full admission and allowed to enroll in courses for the 30-credit doctor of ministry degree. The exact number of credits required and the focus of the courses to be completed will be determined by the director of doctoral studies according to procedures and course evaluation criteria established by Global University. These requirements will be presented to the student in an individualized learning contract.

A doctoral student who has been granted provisional admission will be allowed to enroll in pre-doctoral graduate courses indicated in the individualized learning contract prepared for the student.

A student who has been granted provisional admission to a doctor of ministry degree program based on a deficiency in prerequisites or required credits must satisfy all pre-doctoral credit deficiencies within a maximum of ten years from his or her enrollment in the first deficiency course. The exact time limit to satisfy provisional admission credit deficiencies and be granted full admission as a doctor of ministry student will be determined by the actual number of credits needed by the individual student to total the 78 graduate credits required. All credit deficiencies must be satisfied and full admission granted prior to a student beginning coursework for the 30-credit doctor of ministry degree.

Time Limit for DMin Degree Programs

A student who has been granted full admission to a doctor of ministry degree program, based on completion of all pre-doctoral studies requirements, must complete all doctor of ministry degree requirements in no fewer than two years and no more than six years from the date of enrollment in the first graduate course with Global University after being granted full admission as a doctor of ministry student. The six-year limit includes the doctoral dissertation project and may require the student to take courses concurrently and/or complete some courses in less than the six-month enrollment period.

Biblical Language Requirements

A minimum of 12 credits of Greek and/or Hebrew biblical language studies are required prior to a student being granted full admission to the Bible and theology specialization of the DMin degree program.
Some graduate-level biblical language courses require supervised examinations that may include objective and translation components. They may also require subjective evaluation components. See “Degree Requirements” below for additional notes on biblical language requirements.

Doctoral Candidacy Examination Requirements

A student must complete a supervised comprehensive doctoral candidacy examination with a score of 83 percent (3.00) or higher prior to being granted doctor of ministry degree candidacy status. The student is eligible to apply with the director of doctoral studies to take the candidacy examination after completing all course requirements for a master of divinity degree and all doctor of ministry degree core and plan-specific courses. Each doctoral student must successfully complete an individualized supervised comprehensive doctoral candidacy exam within three months after completing the last of the core and specialization course requirements for a DMin program in order to be considered for candidacy and allowed to enroll for the doctoral dissertation project research and proposal course. A student must have a grade point average of 3.00 or higher for all graduate-level courses completed with Global University to qualify to apply for doctoral candidacy.

Students will be required to pay a doctoral candidacy examination fee. Students who have not been granted doctoral candidacy will not be allowed to enroll in doctoral dissertation courses.

Doctoral Dissertation Requirements

All doctor of ministry degree candidates will be required to complete a doctoral dissertation project to fulfill degree requirements. The dissertation project is comprised of two parts: (1) research and proposal and (2) writing and defense. To complete the project requirements, the student will be required to enroll in RES 8953 _Dissertation Research and Proposal_ to research a topic and complete a dissertation project proposal approved by the student’s doctoral dissertation project advisor and Global University’s director of doctoral studies (hereafter referred to as director). The student will then enroll in RES 8966 (or degree-specific) _Dissertation from Idea to Bound Volume_. A student may complete only one dissertation project for a doctor of ministry degree program.

Students are encouraged to begin planning for the dissertation project immediately after admission to the Graduate School of Theology as a doctor of ministry student. Enrollment in RES 8953 and appointment of a dissertation project advisor will be allowed after a student has been admitted to candidacy in the program. Admission to candidacy requires a student to successfully complete all required doctoral core and specialization courses and the doctoral candidacy exam.

Enrollment in RES 8966 and appointment of a dissertation project committee will be allowed after a student’s doctoral project proposal has been approved by the project advisor and the director and / or dean. See “Degree Requirements” below for the doctoral dissertation course number for a specific degree specialization.

Doctoral Dissertation Project Time Limit

The time limit to complete the doctoral dissertation project is two years from the date of enrollment in RES 8966 _Dissertation From Idea to Bound Volume_.

2020 Graduate School of Theology Catalog
Doctor of Ministry Degree Requirements

Prerequisites for the Doctor of Ministry Degree—Biblical Studies and Theology Specialization are as follows: a master of divinity or equivalent—must include 12 credits of Greek language, verifiable ministerial accreditation / credentials, and a minimum of three years of active ministry experience.

Global University’s doctor of ministry degree program requires students to complete 30 credits beyond a minimum of 78 graduate credits comparable to the course requirements for Global University’s master of divinity degree. The 30-credit doctoral requirement will include 9 credits of doctoral core courses, 12 credits in the area of specialization, and 9 credits for a doctoral dissertation project that will include a 3-credit research and proposal portion and a 6-credit writing and defense portion. Core courses for the doctor of ministry degree should be completed prior to enrolling in other required courses specified for a doctor of ministry degree. See course descriptions for details for specific courses. Doctor of ministry degree requirements follow.

GRADUATE STUDIES CERTIFICATES—18 CREDITS

- A graduate studies certificate is not a degree nor a certification.
- Global University’s graduate studies certificate programs require students to complete six 3-credit courses for a total of 18 credits.
- A student may complete multiple graduate certificate programs, but a minimum of 12 credits must be completed with Global University for each certificate earned.
- All courses required for graduate studies certificate programs are available for enrollment in graduate degree programs and have the same academic requirements for both certificate and degree programs.
- It is the responsibility of the student to verify the applicability of Global University’s credits toward his or her academic and professional goals.
- Certificate-specific course options are listed for each certificate program.

Purpose and Goals of Certificate Programs

The purpose of the graduate studies certificate programs is to enhance training for students internationally to (1) help them grow personally, professionally, and spiritually, and equip them to become more effective leaders within the spheres of home, church, and society; and (2) equip them for further academic pursuits and various ministries and leadership positions of the church and society.

Graduate studies certificate programs present a discipline-specific grouping of courses that enables a student to align his or her academic study closely with personal ministry, professional, or career goals.

Completion of a graduate certificate program equips the student to do the following:

1. Teach, minister, or otherwise serve with professional excellence as educator, leader, missionary, and support staff within church, missions, educational, and professional organizations
2. Exhibit writing and reflection skills that are necessary in ministerial and professional practice
3. Engage in research and studies beyond the graduate-level certificate

Discipline-specific graduate studies certificate programs are designed to allow students who have earned an accredited bachelor of arts or higher degree to complete graduate-level studies in a discipline that will qualify them to participate in academic or professional activities that require proficiency in the field of study. Graduate studies certificate options include the following:

1. New Testament Studies
2. Education
3. Intercultural Studies
4. Leadership

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Bible (BIB)  Biblical Studies Division

BIB 5033 The Bible as Literature: Theory and Methodology  (3 credits)

One of the blessings of the literary approach to biblical study has been the recognition that the Bible contains many different genres or types of literature, including poetry, narratives, proverbs, visionary literature, and other genres. The literary features of these different genres are presented in this course, which provides students the opportunity to apply the techniques of literary criticism to these various genres of biblical texts.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None.

Requirements this course will fulfill:

Materials required:
The Bible as Literature: Theory and Methodology, Graduate Study Guide by Leland Ryken; The Bible as Literature Readings and Resource Materials; How to Read the Bible as Literature by Leland Ryken; Words of Delight by Leland Ryken; and The Holy Bible.

BIB 5543 Foundations of Biblical Language  (3 credits)

This course provides a basic understanding of the structure and elements of biblical Hebrew and biblical Greek for those students who are not pursuing formal studies in either language. It will enable the student to develop advanced skills in using biblical language research tools (lexicons, concordances, grammars, wordbooks, etc.) in order to deepen their understanding of the biblical texts. This, in turn, will further enhance and advance the student's ministry to others.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Bible, Biblical Language.

Materials required:

BIB 5813/BIB 5823 Directed Reading and Research: Biblical Studies  (3 credits)

See “Specialized Studies—All Divisions” at the end of this section for details.

BIB 6293 Hermeneutics: God’s Message and Its Meaning  (3 credits)

In this course, general rules that apply to grammatical-historical interpretation will be presented and contrasted with other common systems of hermeneutics. Students are challenged to develop a system of biblical exegesis that adheres to basic rules of hermeneutics. To accomplish this, the student is required to demonstrate these principles in the exposition of selected passages. A secondary goal is to acquaint the student with unique factors that affect interpretation of major literature genres in the Bible. To achieve this, the student will practice interpreting within the genres of historical narrative, poetry, parables, and epistles.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
Core course for all graduate degree programs.

Requirements this course will fulfill:

Materials required:

BIB 6903 Practicum: Biblical Studies  (3 credits)

Through a self-designed biblical studies preaching project, students are given opportunities for reflection on their theology and practice of ministry within a ministry environment, such as a local church, a parachurch ministry, a mission trip, or a Christian school.

See course description for MIN 6903 for additional details.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Bible.

BIB 6926 Thesis: Biblical Studies  (6 credits)

This course requires field-based research after identification of a problem of a practical nature relating to some phase of biblical studies or selection of a topic in the field of biblical studies for further research. See course description for RES 6926 for additional details.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Bible, Research.

BIB 7813/BIB 7823 Specialized Reading and Research: Biblical Studies  (3 credits)

See “Specialized Studies—All Divisions” at the end of this section for details.

Materials required:

Bible New Testament (BNT)

BNT 5093 Letter to the Galatians  (3 credits)

Galatians is one of the most influential and difficult of Paul’s letters. This course creates opportunities to delve into the social, cultural, and religious backgrounds that gave rise to the Galatian controversy, to understand the opponents’ “gospel,” and to hear anew the significance of Paul’s response. The student will be enabled to search out ways in which this letter remains a “word-on-target” for the life and vision of twenty-first-century churches. Particular attention is given to the rhetorical and social-scientific dimensions of the text. This course will not fulfill requirements for biblical language credit. See BNT 7093 for biblical language credit.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None.

Requirements this course will fulfill:

Materials required:

BNT 5103 Letter to the Hebrews  (3 credits)

The Epistle to the Hebrews is a monument to early Christian reflection on the significance of the work of Jesus, His benefits, and the response of faith in the transition from the law of Moses to the gospel of grace. Students will learn the exegetical techniques of rhetorical and cultural-anthropological analysis and apply them to a close reading of Hebrews.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None.

Requirements this course will fulfill:

Materials required:
BNT 5183 Acts as History and Theology
(3 credits)

Because ancient historical monographs typically illustrated lessons for life through the history they recounted, this course approaches the New Testament book of Acts as both history and theology. The course will thus focus on both the history of earliest Christianity found in Acts and the early church and its leaders as models for subsequent Christian life and witness.

Requirements this course will fulfill:

Materials required:

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None.

BNT 5573 Graduate Greek I (3 credits)

This course is a study of Koiné Greek grammar and syntax with emphasis on reading and understanding the Greek text of both the New Testament and extrabiblical Koiné literature. Students will learn to appreciate the Koiné Greek of the New Testament and read Greek as it was written by Greek authors while avoiding the English syntactical approach. Requires supervised examinations that include translation of selected New Testament and/or extrabiblical passage(s).

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None.

Requirements this course will fulfill:

Materials required:

BNT 5813/BNT 5823 Directed Reading and Research: New Testament Studies (3 credits)

See “Specialized Studies—All Divisions” at the end of this section for details.

BNT 6043 Pneumatology in Lucan Literature (3 credits)

Historically, the exegesis of Luke–Acts has tended to neglect the study of Luke’s particular pneumatology. When Luke’s pneumatology has been treated, the tendency has been to interpret it through the categories of Pauline theology. This course seeks to analyze the pneumatology of Luke strictly in terms of Luke’s own theological agenda and approach as revealed in Luke–Acts. The larger hermeneutical and theological consequences of this theme are explored in depth with a view to demonstrating the essentially Lucan character of modern Pentecostal pneumatology.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
Core course for all graduate degree programs.

Requirements this course will fulfill:

Materials required:

BNT 6303 The Gospels (3 credits)

This course enables students to create sound expositions of the Gospels that give proper consideration to their historical, literary, and theological aspects. Through exposure to the general field of gospel interpretation (instruction about the specific principles that should be applied to the biblical texts), students are given opportunities to produce expositions that integrate the knowledge and skills acquired in the course and that reflect the correct exegesis of the original texts. The thorough examination of the texts of the four Gospels will equip students to deal with portrayals of Jesus that differ from the view presented by the gospel writers.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None

Requirements this course will fulfill:

Materials required:

BNT 6403 Pauline Prison Epistles: An Expositional Analysis (3 credits)

This course gives advanced students an opportunity to explore the letters that Paul wrote while a prisoner under house arrest in the city of Rome (Acts, 28:16). It requires a careful expository and theological examination of the Prison Epistles (Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon). Students will become acquainted with the social life of Paul’s converts, the date, purpose, and circumstances for writing each letter, the technical vocabulary, and the theological intent of Paul’s arguments. Completion of the course depends on a solid knowledge of the theology of the Prison Epistles, their major themes, and their application to the church and humankind in the twenty-first century.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Materials required:

BNT 6503 Romans: An Expositional Analysis (3 credits)
This course provides an overview of Paul’s most important letter, studying authorship, date, purpose, circumstances for writing the letter, and the major themes of Pauline thought. The theology of the letter and its application to people living in the twenty-first century are emphasized.
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: None
Requirements this course will fulfill: None
Materials required:
Romans: An Expositional Analysis, Graduate Study Guide by French L. Arrington; Romans: An Expositional Analysis Readings and Resource Materials; The Greatest Letter Ever Written: A Study of Romans by French L. Arrington; The Epistle to the Romans by C. K. Barrett; Romans: A Shorter Commentary by C.E.B Cranfield; Commentary on Romans by Ernst Käseemann.

BNT 6513 1 Corinthians: An Expositional Analysis (3 credits)
This course gives advanced students an opportunity to explore one of the most exciting letters that Paul wrote, requiring a careful expository and theological examination. Students will become acquainted with inquiries like Roman Corinth, the literary world of Paul, socio-rhetorical resources of 1 Corinthians, the social life of Paul’s converts, the date, purpose, and circumstances for writing the letter, and the technical vocabulary and rhetorical intent of Paul’s arguments. Completion of the course depends on a solid knowledge of the theology of 1 Corinthians and its major themes and their application to the church and humankind in the twenty-first century.
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: None
Requirements this course will fulfill: None
Materials required:
1 Corinthians: An Expositional Analysis, Graduate Study Guide by French L. Arrington; 1 Corinthians: An Expositional Analysis Readings and Resource Materials; Conflict & Community: A Socio-Rhetorical Commentary on 1 and 2 Corinthians by Ben Witherington III; The First Epistle to the Corinthians by C.K. Barnett; and The First Epistle to the Corinthians by Gordon D. Fee; and The Holy Bible.

BNT 6673 Intermediate Greek (Graduate Greek III) (3 credits)
This course reviews Greek grammar and conducts an in-depth study of Greek syntax designed to equip students with translational and exegetical skills for study and analysis of the Greek New Testament. Students will practice using major linguistic tools, create word studies, and translate passages of the Greek New Testament, and are introduced to leading software that will assist them in research of the Greek New Testament. Requires supervised examinations that include translation of New Testament and/or extrabiblical passage(s).
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
BNT 5573 Graduate Greek I and BNT 5583 Graduate Greek II or six equivalent credits of graduate or undergraduate Greek language with a minimum grade average of 80% (or its equivalent).
Requirements this course will fulfill:
Materials required:

BNT 6693 Practicum: New Testament Studies (3 credits)
Through a self-designed New Testament studies teaching project, students are given opportunities for reflection on their theology and practice of ministry within a typical ministry environment, such as a local church, a parachurch ministry, a mission trip, or a Christian school. See course description for MIN 6903 for additional details.
Requirements this course will fulfill:

This course requires field-based research after identification of a problem of a practical nature relating to some phase of New Testament studies or selection of a topic in the field of New Testament studies for further research. See course description for RES 6926 for additional details.
Requirements this course will fulfill:

BNT 7103 Greek Exegesis of the Letter to the Hebrews (3 credits)
The Epistle to the Hebrews stands as a monument to early Christian reflection on the significance of the work of Jesus, His benefits, and the response of faith. The author’s use of the Old Testament will be a major focus of the course, with the author’s call to adhere to the gospel of grace rather than the Law of Moses. The successful completion of this course will require direct translation from the original language into modern English. A consideration of grammar, syntax, and context must be reflected in the translation and application of the text.
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
BNT 5573 Graduate Greek I, BNT 5583 Graduate Greek II, and BNT 6673 Intermediate Greek, or nine equivalent credits of graduate or undergraduate Greek language with a minimum grade average of 80% (or its equivalent); and BIB 5033 Bible as Literature, BIB 6293 Hermeneutics, or equivalent course required.
Requirements this course will fulfill:
Materials required:

BNT 7403 Pauline Prison Epistles: An Exegetical Analysis (3 credits)
This course gives advanced students an opportunity to explore and study the letters that Paul wrote while under house arrest in the city of Rome (Acts: 28:16). It requires a careful expository and theological examination of the Prison Epistles (Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon) with attention given to the grammar and syntax of the original Greek text. Students must provide a translation of each passage in modern English and are required to become acquainted with inquiries like the social life of Paul’s converts, the date, purpose, and circumstances for writing each letter, the technical vocabulary, and the theological intent of Paul’s arguments. The successful completion of the course depends on a solid knowledge of the theology of the Prison Epistles, their major themes, and their application to the church and humankind in the twenty-first century.
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
Requirements this course will fulfill:

Materials required:

BNT 7503 Romans: An Exegetical Analysis (3 credits)

This course gives students opportunity to explore Paul’s most important letter through exegetical and theological study of the original Greek text. It provides an overview of inquiries like authorship, date, purpose, circumstances of the writing of the letter, and the major themes of Pauline thought. The theology of the letter and its application to people living in the twenty-first century are emphasized. The successful completion of this course requires translation from the original language into modern English. Consideration of grammar, syntax, and context must be reflected in the translation and application of the text.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
BNT 5573 Graduate Greek I, BNT 5583 Graduate Greek II, and BNT 6673 Intermediate Greek, or nine equivalent credits of graduate or undergraduate Greek language with a minimum grade average of 80% (or its equivalent); and BIB 5033 Bible as Literature, BIB 6293 Hermeneutics, or equivalent course required.

Requirements this course will fulfill:

Materials required:
Romans: An Exegetical Analysis, Graduate Study Guide by French L. Arrington; Romans: An Exegetical Analysis Readings and Resource Materials; The Greatest Letter Ever Written: A Study of Romans by French L. Arrington; The Epistle to the Romans by C. K. Barrett; Romans: A Shorter Commentary by C.E.B Cranfield; Commentary on Romans by Ernst Käsemann; The Greek Reference set (New International Version of The Holy Bible); and two additional modern-language translations that include the book of Romans.

BNT 7513 1 Corinthians: An Exegetical Analysis (3 credits)

In 1 Corinthians, Paul addresses several significant issues faced by the church at Corinth, covering a wide range of practical and theological topics. The letter contains the most detailed presentation of Paul’s teaching on the Holy Spirit. This course provides an exegetical study of key passages in the book related to these issues. The successful completion of this course will require direct translation from the original language into modern English. A consideration of grammar, syntax, and context must be reflected in the translation and application of the text.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
BNT 5573 Graduate Greek I, BNT 5583 Graduate Greek II, and BNT 6673 Intermediate Greek, or nine equivalent credits of graduate or undergraduate Greek language with a minimum grade average of 80% (or its equivalent); and BIB 5033 Bible as Literature, BIB 6293 Hermeneutics, or equivalent course required.

Requirements this course will fulfill:

Materials required:
1 Corinthians: An Exegetical Analysis, Graduate Study Guide by French L. Arrington; 1 Corinthians: An Exegetical Analysis Readings and Resource Materials; Conflict & Community: A Socio-Rhetorical Commentary on 1 and 2 Corinthians by Ben Witherington III; The First Epistle to the Corinthians by C.K. Barrett; and The First Epistle to the Corinthians by Gordon D. Fee; the Greek Reference set, The Holy Bible

BNT 7813/BNT 7823 Specialized Reading and Research: New Testament Studies (3 credits)

See “Specialized Studies—All Divisions” at the end of this section for details.

Bible Old Testament (BOT) Biblical Studies Division

BOT 5143 Isaiah: Major Themes (3 credits)

This course addresses major themes in Isaiah and gives students opportunities to utilize the exegetical process of biblical study in developing articles, lessons, and sermons based on these themes, including applications to contemporary life in their own cultural context. The course presents the four themes of Judah’s sinfulness, God’s judgment for sin, Judah’s hope of restoration, and Judah’s messianic expectations.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Bible, Old Testament.

Materials required:

BOT 5153 Hosea and Amos (3 credits)

This course moves chapter by chapter through the writings of minor prophets Hosea and Amos, to help students understand their messages to their people. It gives students the opportunity to utilize the exegetical process of biblical study in developing articles, lessons, sermons, or sermon

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
BNT 5573 Graduate Greek I, BNT 5583 Graduate Greek II, and BNT 6673 Intermediate Greek, or nine equivalent credits of graduate or undergraduate Greek language with a minimum grade average of 80% (or its equivalent); and BIB 5033 Bible as Literature, BIB 6293 Hermeneutics, or equivalent course required.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Bible, Old Testament.

Materials required:

BOT 5173 Poetry and Proverb: The Psalms and Wisdom Literature (3 credits)

This course focuses on Psalms, Song of Solomon, and Proverbs. Ecclesiastes is presented as a culminating masterpiece of poetry and proverb. The course utilizes a hermeneutical approach to deal with methods of interacting with biblical poetry and proverbs. Students are led to see the Bible as a continuously poetic and proverbial book, especially as evidenced in the New Testament.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
BIB 5033 Bible as Literature recommended.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Bible, Old Testament.

Materials required:
Poetry and Proverb: Psalms and Wisdom Literature, Graduate Study Guide by Leland Ryken; Poetry and Proverb: Psalms and Wisdom Literature Readings and Resource Materials; The Wisdom of Proverbs, Job, and Ecclesiastes: An Introduction to Wisdom Literature by Derek Kidner; Words of Delight by Leland Ryken; How to Read the Psalms by Tremper Longman III; The Art of Biblical Poetry by Robert Alter; and The Holy Bible.

BOT 5533 Origins: Christian Faith and Natural Science (3 credits)

This course presents an overview of foundational issues of the long-standing creation-evolution debate. The interdisciplinary approach (philosophy, natural science, and biblical interpretation) includes analyzing arguments provided by all three theistic camps (young earth creationists, old earth creationists, and evolutionary creationists.) Students are challenged to synthesize and articulate a personal perspective on creation-evolution.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Bible, Old Testament.

Materials required:
A Scientifi Presents Evidence for Belief by Francis S. Collins; Beyond the Firmament: Understanding Science and the Theology of Creation by Gordon J. Glover; Three Views on Creation and Evolution by J. P. Moreland and John Mark Reynolds; The Lost World of Genesis One: Ancient Cosmology and the Origins Debate by John Walton; Holman QuickSource™ Guide to Understanding Creation: A Biblical and Scientific Overview by Mark Stephen Whorton and Hill Roberts; The Genesis Account by Jonathan Sarfati; and The Holy Bible.

BOT 5813/BOT 5823 Directed Reading and Research: Old Testament Studies (3 credits)

See “Specialized Studies—All Divisions” at the end of this section for details.

BOT 6233 The Pentateuch: Critical Issues (3 credits)

This course approaches the five books of Moses in light of their historical backgrounds and literary presentation of theological themes. It treats the doctrines of divine origin, original sin, salvation, the Abrahamic and Sinai covenants, holiness, ceremonial laws, and the value of the rest of the laws of Moses to modern believers. Various approaches to exegesis of the Pentateuch will be analyzed including major higher critical methods, documentary hypothesis, and relation of the Pentateuch to contemporary pagan literature.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:

Requirements this course will fulfill:

Materials required:

BOT 6903 Practicum: Old Testament Studies (3 credits)

This field-based experience provides a supervised learning experience in an actual practice of ministry within a ministry environment, opportunities for reflection on their theology and practice of ministry opportunities. This course requires field-based research after identification of a problem of a practical nature relating to some phase of Old Testament studies or selection of a topic in the field of Old Testament studies for research. See course description for RES 6926 for additional details.

CCHP6913 Chaplaincy Practicum: Ministries (3 credits)

This field-based experience provides a supervised learning experience in an actual Christian ministry setting. Through a self-designed ministry project, the student is given opportunities to apply proper hermeneutical and homiletical principles to preparation and delivery of textual and expository sermons and to reflect on his or her theology and practice of ministry within a typical ministry environment. The project must be pre-approved by a Global University mentor and overseen by an approved supervisor. The practicum, however, is adaptable enough to be contextualized to the venue and needs of the student. The project may be fulfilled in a variety of settings, such as a local church, a parachurch ministry, and military, corrections, health care and mental health facilities.

A student must be within 12 credits of completing all other coursework for the respective degree before enrolling in MIN 6903 or discipline-specific Practicum.

Requirements this course will fulfill:

Materials required:

Practicum Manual by James E. Richardson; Servant Leadership: A Journey into the Nature of Legitimate Power and Greatness by Robert K. Greenleaf; and The Holy Bible.

EDU 5023 Educational Measurement (3 credits)

As an introduction to assessment of learning, this course covers the relationship of learning and assessment, including the design, development, and administration of tests and other assessment instruments and procedures. The course also covers test evaluation and grade assignments. A final chapter deals with interpreting standardized test scores. Specific topics included in the course are test specifications, item-writing strategies, test construction and administration, performance and portfolio assessment, item analysis, test evaluation, and grade reporting.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:

Requirements this course will fulfill:

Materials required:

EDU 5053 Bible School Administration (3 credits)

This course is a study of administrative philosophy, structure, planning, organization, management, educational standards and evaluation, and student development for Bible schools. Students gain a broad understanding of the principles of educational administration that relate to Bible schools or advanced schools of theology and application of the principles in their own cultural context.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: None.
Requirements this course will fulfill: Education, Leadership.

Materials required:
Bible School Administration, Graduate Study Guide by Steve Durasso; Bible School Administration and Resource Materials; On Q: Causing Quality in Higher Education by Daniel T. Seymour; Management: A Biblical Approach by Myron D. Rush; Developing the Leader Within You by John C. Maxwell; Team Leadership in Christian Ministry by Kenneth O. Gangel; and The Holy Bible.

EDU 5063 Curriculum and Instructional Design (3 credits)
This course addresses issues and technologies involved in planning, developing, and implementing curriculum in secondary and post-secondary education and training. Students will be introduced to new ways of thinking about and practicing a technology of learning and teaching that has the potential to improve teaching effectiveness and learning for those being taught. In the study of curriculum development, special attention will be paid to the instructional design process and to the educational technology of distance learning. Students will be given opportunities for hands-on practice in doing instructional development on the college level.
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: EDU 6203 Educational Psychology or equivalent course required.
Requirements this course will fulfill: Education.
Materials required:
Curriculum and Instructional Design, Graduate Study Guide by Norman D. Anderson, revised by Delta Cavenier and Mary Maguire; A Curriculum Design Manual for Theological Education: A Learning Outcomes
Focus by Leroy Ford; Bible School Leadership Manual: Tools to Equip the Next Generation for the Harvest by John Easter and Carl Gibbs; Classroom Instruction That Works by Ceri Dean, Elizabeth Hubble, and Howard Pillar; and The Holy Bible.

See “Specialized Studies—All Divisions” at the end of this section for details.

EDU 6073 Teaching Strategies: Facilitating Adult Education (3 credits)
This course presents teaching methodology from a Christian perspective and deals with the fundamental responsibilities of the instructor in the classroom. The student will interact with modern educational methods that utilize various teaching/learning procedures, classroom management, optimum conditions for learning, cognitive and behavioral learning theories, and information processing theories in view of the psychological basis and their advantages and disadvantages. The measurement and evaluation of learning is considered in light of the instructional tactics that would best prepare students to apply, analyze, synthesize, and evaluate the information that is supplied.
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: None.
Requirements this course will fulfill: Education.
Materials required:

EDU 6203 Educational Psychology (3 credits)
This course presents a study of theories of human learning, development, and motivation as they relate to the educational tasks of guiding and encouraging learning. The course emphasizes application of theories of educational psychology in a church or ministry context and how to integrate faith and learning through the use of critical thinking.
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: None.
Requirements this course will fulfill: Education.
Materials required:
Educational Psychology: Graduate Study Guide by John F. Carter; Notable Selections in Educational Psychology by Rhet Diessner; Psychology of Learning for Instruction by Marcy P. Driscoll; The Integration of Faith and Learning: A Worldview Approach by Robert Harris; and The Holy Bible.

EDU 6903 Practicum: Education (3 credits)
Through a self-designed education project, the student is given opportunities for reflection on his or her theology and practice of ministry within a typical ministry environment, such as a local church or a Christian school. See course description for MIN 6903 for additional details.
Requirements this course will fulfill: Education.

EDU 6926 Thesis: Education (6 credits)
This course requires field-based research after identification of a problem of a practical nature relating to some phase of Christian education or selection of a topic relating to Christian education for further research. See course description for RES 6926 for additional details.
Requirements this course will fulfill: Education, Research.

Smedes; and The Holy Bible.

LDR 5063 Leadership Research (3 credits)

This course is designed to help students with the evaluative processes necessary to gain a contextual understanding of the leadership dynamics present in their own cultural/ministerial context. Attention is given to evaluation and design of structures and processes for leadership development appropriate to the student’s cultural/ministerial setting.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Leadership.

Materials required:
Leadership Research, Graduate Study Guide by Craig D. Rusc; Research in Church and Missions by Viggo Soggaard; Research Methods in Anthropology by H. Russell Bernard; Strategic Planning for Churches by Charles Elliott; Called and Empowered by Murray W. Dempster and Byron D. Klaus; and The Holy Bible.

LDR 5083 Leadership Training Methods (3 credits)

This course provides an overview of various methods employed in leadership training by religious and marketplace organizations with a specific focus on training of Christian leaders. It addresses the development of self and of others in the context of Christian community. The course includes discussion of formal, informal, and informal training as part of the process of contextualizing leadership training.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Leadership.

Materials required:
Leadership Training Methods, Graduate Study Guide by David De Garmo; Leadership Training Methods Readings and Resource Materials; How to Grow Leaders: The Seven Key Principles of Effective Leadership Development by John Adair; The Shaping of an Effective Leader by Gayle Beebe, Make It Stick by Peter C. Brown and Henry L. Roediger II; Growing Leaders by Design by Harold Longenecker; Developing the Leaders Around You by John Maxwell; The Great Omission by Dallas Willard.

LDR 5813/LDR 5823 Directed Reading and Research: Leadership (3 credits)

See “Specialized Studies—All Divisions” at the end of this section for details.

LDR 6033 Dynamics of Christian Organizations (3 credits)

This course presents a systematic examination of dynamics present in Christian organizations with a view to understanding the relationship between organizational structures and cultural context. The dynamics of organizational life will be explored in light of intentional mission and ministry.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
LDR 5013 Foundations for Christian Leadership or equivalent course required.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Leadership.

Materials required:

LDR 6903 Practicum: Leadership (3 credits)

Through a self-designed leadership project, the student is given opportunities to reflect on, develop, and utilize decision-making strategies, interpersonal leadership relationships, and other aspects of ministerial administration within a typical ministry environment, such as a local church, a parachurch ministry, a mission trip, or a Christian school.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Leadership.

See course description for MIN 6903 for additional details.

LDR 6926 Thesis: Leadership (6 credits)

This course requires field-based research after identification of a problem of a practical nature relating to some phase of Christian leadership or selection of a topic relating to Christian leadership for further research. See course description for RES 6926 for additional details.

MIN 5023 Worship in the Church (3 credits)

This course equips pastors and worship leaders to lead the congregation in a theologically based worship experience that is also culturally relevant. A brief historical and biblical treatment lays the foundation of a practical approach to leading worship that includes but reaches beyond the music ministries of the local church.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
Ministries.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Ministries.

Materials required:
Worship in the Church, Graduate Study Guide by David De Garmo; Worship in the Church Readings and Resource Materials; Worship Through the Ages: How the Great Awakenings Shape Evangelical Worship by Elmer L. Towns and Vernon M. Whaley; At the Origins of Christian Worship by Larry W. Hurtado; The Worship Architect by Constance Cherry; The Gospel Revisited...
MIN 5203 Foundations for Pastoral Theology (3 credits)

This course presents an integrated approach to the character and role of the pastor of a local congregation. Emphasis is placed on the divine call and the biblical qualifications of a pastor in relation to the development of a personal biblical theology of pastoral ministry. Pastoral expectations and responsibilities are examined with specific attention given to the preparation of special services, including water baptism, communion, weddings, funerals, and dedications.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: None.

Requirements this course will fulfill: Ministries, Theology.

Materials required: Foundations for Pastoral Theology, Graduate Study Guide by Dean L. Grabill; Pastoral Theology: Essentials of Ministry by Thomas C. Eden; The Pentecostal Pastor: A Mandate for the 21st Century edited by Thomas E. Trask, Wayne I. Goodall, and Zenas J. Bicket; Escape from Church, Inc.; The Return of the Pastor-Shepherd by E. Glenn Wagner; Spiritual Classics by Richard Foster; Spirit and Power by William and Robert Menzies; and The Holy Bible.

MIN 5263 Marriage and Family Counseling (3 credits)

This course is designed to help the student acquire an understanding of the issues in marriage and family counseling and be able to apply this understanding in pastoral ministry to married couples in the local church. Multiple tools and techniques for managing marriage and family counseling issues are presented. Special attention is given to history taking, problem assessment, and therapeutic interventions.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: None.

Requirements this course will fulfill: Ministries.

MIN 5273 Developing a Christian Worldview (3 credits)

This course addresses the connection between a person’s worldview and his or her belief system and lifestyle. Students are encouraged to develop a Christian worldview in which they respond to the basic issues of life according to the intentions and actions of God. Emphasis is placed on a Christian worldview that begins with the transformation of heart and mind and leads to a passion to reach the nations, both individuals and societies. Students examine the dynamics of spiritual formation in developing a Christian worldview and the important role the church fills in preparing people to fulfill God’s plan.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: None.

Requirements this course will fulfill: Leadership, Ministries, Missions, Theology.

MIN 5813/MIN 5823 Directed Reading and Research: Ministerial Studies (3 credits)

See “Specialized Studies—All Divisions” at the end of this section for details.

MIN 6233 Ministerial Ethics: The Bible Confronts a Changing World (3 credits)

This course emphasizes biblical teaching as the foundation for all major ethical issues regardless of culture. It is designed to enable ministerial students to remain culturally relevant, yet true to the Bible, when confronting international cultures and variant teachings. Critical issues that are common in a changing culture will be examined in depth, based on the conviction of the central role of the Bible, even in a contemporary setting.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: Core course for Doctor of Ministry degree programs.

MIN 6503 Relationships for a Lifetime of Ministry (3 credits)

This course presents an in-depth look at contributing factors that lead to departure from ministry. It requires students to evaluate the place of relationships as a key building block of sustainability. Consideration is given to insights shared by contributing writers from multiple disciplines for maximizing ministry effectiveness through relationships with God, parishioners, denominational leadership, local church boards, the family, and the community. Special attention is given to the assumption that long-term tenure facilitates ministerial success.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: Core course for Doctor of Ministry degree programs.

Requirements this course will fulfill: Ministries.

Materials required: Relationships for a Lifetime of Ministry, Graduate Study Guide; Relationships: The Ministerial Imperative by Carl Christer; Work with Me: The 8 Blind Spots Between Men and Women in Business by Barbara Annis and John Gray; Interpersonal Relationship Skills For Ministers edited by Jeannine Bozeman and Argile Smith; Resilient Ministry: What Pastors Told Us About Surviving and Thriving by Tasha Chapman, Bob Burns, and Donald Guthrie; Developing Leaders for the Church: Biblical Principles of Leadership Empowerment by Lattis Campbell; Men Are from Mars, Women Are from Venus: The Classic Guide to Understanding the Opposite Sex by John Gray; Relationships: A Mess Worth Making by Timothy Lane and Paul David Tripp; Forgive and Love Again: Healing Wounded Relationships by John W. Nieder and Thomas M. Thompson; If Only I Could Relate to the People I'm Related To by Stan Toler; Dangerous Calling: Confronting the Unique Challenges of Pastoral Ministry by Paul David Tripp; and The Holy Bible.

MIN 6513 Spiritual Formation: Principles of Christian Discipleship (3 credits)

This course is designed to renew and intensify the spiritual formation of the student. Emphasis is placed on strengthening and building on previously developed biblical spiritual methods for growth and maturity in relationship to God and others. The course structure leads the student to progressively renew and strengthen focus and dependency on Christ alone through Christ-centered character development. Assignments are based on practical application of spiritual basics, such as Scripture knowledge, prayer and biblical meditation, devotional times, worship, time spent in solitude with God, and the sharing of faith in Christ. The course prepares the student for the highest levels of practical ministry, empowered by the Holy Spirit with a fresh commitment to the Lord Jesus Christ.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: Core course for Doctor of Ministry degree programs.

Requirements this course will fulfill: Ministries.

the Good and Beautiful Life by James B. Smith; and The Holy Bible.

MIN 6903 Practicum: Ministries (3 credits)

This field-based experience provides a supervised learning experience in a Christian ministry setting. Through a self-designed ministry project, students are given opportunities to apply proper hermeneutical and homiletical principles to preparation and delivery of textual and expository sermons and to reflect on their theology and practice of ministry within a typical ministry environment. The project must be pre-approved by a Global University mentor and overseen by an approved supervisor. The practicum, however, is adaptable enough to be contextualized to the venue and needs of each student. The project may be fulfilled in a variety of settings, such as a local church, a parachurch ministry, a mission trip, or a Christian school. See course numbers 6903 preceded by the three-alpha-character designation for discipline-specific practicum enrollment options (BIB, BNT, BOT, EDU, LDR, MIS, RES, THE). Also see “Practicum” in each degree program section.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
A student must be within 12 credits of completing all other coursework for the respective degree before enrolling in MIN 6903 or discipline-specific Practicum.

Requirements this course will fulfill:

Missions (MIS) Ministerial Studies Division

MIS 5013 The Biblical Theology of Missions (3 credits)

This course surveys the biblical themes of Missio Dei and the kingdom of God, which are seen as the unifying concepts of the Bible and the primary vehicles for the biblical theology of missions. In addition to considering the evangelistic mandate of the church, attention is given to the biblical foundation for socioeconomic ministry. Students are challenged to respond to the biblical theology of missions and to evaluate the church’s contemporary involvement in the Missio Dei.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
Core course for all graduate degree programs.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Ministries. Missions.

Materials required:

MIS 5033 Cultural Anthropology (3 credits)

This course presents the basic principles and categories of cultural anthropology, with special attention given to the role of applied anthropology in the missionary task and the anthropological principles most relevant to missionary practice.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Leadership, Missions.

Materials required:
Cultural Anthropology, Graduate Study Guide by Larry L. Niemeyer; Cultural Anthropology Readings and Resource Materials; Anthropological Insights for Missionaries by Paul Hiebert; Ministering Cross Culturally by Sherwood Lingenfelter and Marvin Meyers; Anthropology for Christian Witness by Charles Kraft; Missiology and the Social Sciences by Gary Corwin and Edward Rommen; and The Holy Bible.

MIS 5053 Missions from the Two-Thirds World: Issues and Models for the Emergent Church (3 credits)

This course focuses on the developmental issues faced by missions from the two-thirds world. The mission of the people of God is presented with a scope far beyond that often envisioned in the historic quest for an indigenous church. The operation of a missions organization and the role of laypersons in contemporary missions are also emphasized. Students are challenged to activate their churches to fulfill the Great Commission.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Missions.

Materials required:

MIS 5093 Trends and Current Issues in Missions (3 credits)

This course brings together insights on current missiological issues from assigned reading, collateral reading, and ministry experience with a view toward the appropriate application of significant principles. Current trends and issues are treated in the light of both the biblical background for missions and the present realities of today’s world context. Attention is given to worldwide issues with a focus on issues of significance to the non-Western missionary.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Missions.

Materials required:

MIS 5103 Paradigms for Pentecostal Missions (3 credits)

This course provides a critical analysis of the role of the baptism in the Holy Spirit in the work of world missions today. It explores the historical roots of the doctrine of Spirit-baptism as taught in the classical Pentecostal denominations as well as the contemporary understandings of the baptism in the Holy Spirit as understood by Pentecostals, charismatics, Third Wavers, and non-Pentecostal evangelicals. Biblical and theological issues are also examined by looking into the book of Acts to determine how Luke, the author, viewed Spirit-baptism, and how he expected his readers to view it. Each student is also challenged to consider the role of Spirit-baptism in his or her own life and ministry.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: None.

Requirements this course will fulfill: Missions.

Materials required:

MIS 5813 / MIS 5823 Directed Reading and Research: Missions (3 credits)
See “Specialized Studies—All Divisions” at the end of this section for details.

MIS 6023 Strategies for Cross-Cultural Ministry (3 credits)
This course is designed to enable the cross-cultural minister to appraise the socio-political and religious setting of any given culture in order to develop the strategies that are needed to establish an indigenous church in that culture. In relation to this goal, the course deals with the topics of church planting, cross-cultural communications, power encounters through spiritual warfare, theological training by extension, the multicultural congregation, adjustments of the missionary family, and the role of the church that sends workers into cross-cultural ministry.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: None.

Requirements this course will fulfill: Leadership, Ministries, Missions.

Materials required:
Strategies for Cross-Cultural Ministry, Graduate Study Guide by Gary Luther Royer; Strategies for Cross-Cultural Ministry Readings and Resource Materials; Communicating Christ Cross-Culturally: An Introduction to Missionary Communication by David J. Hesselgreave; Called and Empowered: Global Mission in Pentecostal Perspective by Murray Dempster, Byron D. Klaus, and Douglas Petersen; Understanding Spiritual Power: A Forgotten Dimension of Cross-Cultural Mission and Ministry by Marguerite G. Kraft; Strategies for Passing On the Bread: Models for Fulfilling Missions at Home and Abroad by Gary Luther Royer; Unveiling Islam: An Insider’s Look at Muslim Life and Beliefs by Ergun and Emir Caner; For the Love of God by Jerry Ireland; and The Holy Bible.

MIS 6043 History of the Expansion of Christianity (3 credits)
This is a survey of the expansion of Christianity from the first century to the present. Special attention is given to the role of forces at work in secular history and within the church that contributed to the different stages of missionary effort of the church. Students will be given an opportunity to write an essay on the history of missions in their own country, place that history in the context of global missions history, and discuss the role of secular world trends and forces at work within the church that were relevant to the evangelization of their country.

Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: None.

Requirements this course will fulfill: History, Ministries, Missions.

Materials required:

MIS 6903 Practicum: Missions (3 credits)
Through a self-designed missions or evangelistic outreach project, the student is given opportunities for reflection on his or her theology and practice of ministry within a typical mission environment in a setting, such as a local church, a parachurch ministry, a missions trip, or a Christian school. See course description for MIN 6903 for additional details.

Requirements this course will fulfill: Missions.

MIS 6926 Thesis: Missions (6 credits)
This course requires identification of a problem of a practical nature relating to some phase of Christian missions or selection of a topic relating to Christian missions for further research.

Requirements this course will fulfill: Missions, Research. See course description for RES 6926 for additional details.

MIS 7813 / MIS 7823 Specialized Reading and Research: Missions (3 credits)
See “Specialized Studies—All Divisions” at the end of this section for details.
RES 6926 Graduate Thesis: Purpose, Process, and Product  (6 credits)
This course is an applied research project culminating in a final written thesis based on independent academic and field-based research after identification of a problem of a practical nature relating to some phase of Christian ministry or selection of a topic in Christian ministry for research. Students must research, organize, analyze, critically evaluate, interpret, propose a solution, and present a written thesis based on results and analysis of research. See course numbers 6926 preceded by the three-alpha-character designation for discipline-specific thesis enrollment options (BIB, BNT, BOT, EDU, LDR, MIN, MIS, THE).
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
RES 6913 Research Methodology or equivalent course is required. A student must be within 12 credits of completing all other coursework for the respective degree before enrolling in RES 6926 or discipline-specific thesis.
Requirements this course will fulfill:
Research.
Materials required:
The Graduate Thesis: Purpose, Process, and Product, Graduate Study Guide by D. Barry Lumsden; Global University Graduate Studies Form and Style Guide; Writing the Doctoral Dissertation by Gordon B. Davis and Clyde A. Parker; A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations by Kate L. Turabian; Practical Research: Planning and Design by Paul D. Leedy and Jeannie Ellis Ormrod; and The Holy Bible.

RES 7813/RES 7823 Specialized Reading and Research  (3 credits)
See “Specialized Studies—All Divisions” at the end of this section for details.

RES 8953 Dissertation Research and Proposal  (3 credits)
This course is designed to guide students in the preparation of a graduate dissertation/project proposal. It provides background and analysis of the processes for educational and ministerial research, and an in-depth study of the elements and procedures for conducting textual, qualitative, and quantitative research. The course focuses on examining the major methodological traditions of these approaches to research and the distinctions between them. Students will be guided by mentors in the development of a formal dissertation/project proposal. If you have Internet capability, your book provides many additional resources at https://studydites.sagepub.com/kumar4e/.
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
This course guides the student in writing the dissertation proposal, and must be completed prior to enrolling in RES 8966.
Requirements this course will fulfill:
Research.
Materials required:

RES 8966 Dissertation from Idea to Bound Volume  (6 credits)
This course is an applied research project culminating in a written doctoral dissertation based on independent academic and field-based research on an identified problem of a practical nature relating to Christian ministry or selection of a topic in the biblical text for in-depth research. It requires students to research, organize, analyze, critically evaluate, interpret, propose a solution, and present a written dissertation based on results and analysis of research. See course numbers 8966 preceded by the three-alpha-character designation for discipline-specific doctoral dissertation project enrollment options (BIB, BNT, BOT, EDU, LDR, MIN, MIS, THE).
Publication date to be announced.
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
A student must have attained Doctor of Ministry degree candidacy status and completed RES 8953 Dissertation Research and Proposal with a minimum grade of 80% before enrolling in RES 8966 or discipline-specific Dissertation from Idea to Bound Volume.
Requirements this course will fulfill:
Research.
Materials required:
Dissertation From Idea to Bound Volume, Graduate Study Guide by James E. Richardson; Writing Your Doctoral Dissertation in Fifteen Minutes a Day by Joan Bolker; Writing the Doctoral Dissertation by Gordon Davis and Clyde Parker; and The Holy Bible.

Theology (THE)  Biblical Studies Division

THE 5013 Trends in International Theology  (3 credits)
This course provides a critical analysis of significant theological perspectives and personalities of the last century. It explores the influences of culture on theology, the function of the Bible in contemporary theologies, the role of theology in the hermeneutical task, and the significance of these factors for doing theology in the student’s own cultural context. International trends in theology are surveyed from an evangelical perspective, including contextualized theologies like Latin American liberation theology, green (environmental) theology, and feminist theology, as well as informal theologies like positive confession and prosperity gospel.
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None.
Requirements this course will fulfill:
Missions, Theology.
Materials required:

THE 5813/THE 5823 Directed Reading and Research: Theology  (3 credits)
See “Specialized Studies—All Divisions” at the end of this section for details.

THE 6093 Theology of the Holy Spirit in the Old Testament  (3 credits)
This course presents an in-depth examination of a comprehensive list of passages that deal specifically with the Holy Spirit and His work as revealed in the Old Testament. A conscious effort is made to present a biblical (rather than systematic) theology, though at times it will be thematic. Special care is taken to reveal the continuity of teaching on the Holy Spirit in the Old and New Testaments.
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation:
None.

Requirements this course will fulfill:
Old Testament, Theology.
Materials required:

This course addresses a comprehensive list of traditional Pentecostal teachings on the Holy Spirit as revealed in the New Testament. Particular attention is given to the writings of Luke, John, and Paul, providing a clear presentation of the differences in their approach and concerns regarding the one theme they present. Special care is taken to reveal the continuity in teaching concerning the Holy Spirit in the Old and New Testaments.
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: None.

Requirements this course will fulfill: New Testament, Theology.

Materials required:

Specialized Studies All Divisions

5813/5823 Directed Reading and Research: [Discipline-Specific] (3 credits)
This directed reading/research approach allows a student to design and complete a reading plan in a content area that is of interest to the student, relevant to his or her academic program, and for which an equivalent course is not available for enrollment. All work will be done under the direction of a graduate mentor. The student is required to select readings, design a project based on the readings, and present a proposal detailing the books and other publications to be read and the project to be completed. All proposals must be approved by the mentor and the dean of the Graduate School of Theology, after which the student will complete the reading project and present a detailed project report.
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: A student must complete all core courses before enrolling for a directed reading. Credit for only one directed reading and research enrollment may be applied to a Master of Arts degree; credit for two may be applied to a Master of Divinity degree.
Requirements this course will fulfill: Determined by the field of study and indicated by the alpha prefix for the course number (BIB, BNT, BOT, EDU, LDR, MIN, MIS, RES, THE).
Materials required: To be selected by the student with approval of the mentor and dean.

7813/7823 Specialized Reading and Research: [Discipline-Specific] (3 credits)
This specialized reading/research approach requires a student to design and complete a plan that will enable him or her to fulfill specialized study requirements for the completion of a degree program or project under the supervision of a mentor and with approval of the dean of the Graduate School of Theology. Readings and research will meet a specific individual academic need and will not replace an existing course. The student must fulfill reading and research requirements that are academically equivalent to or greater than that for an individual course at the same level of studies. Assignment submissions will include book reviews, annotated bibliographies, and reflective essays. Methodologies will reflect graduate-level academic performance that applies knowledge at the higher levels of the cognitive and affective domains.
Prerequisite or sequence recommendation: A student must complete all core courses for the respective degree program before enrolling for a specialized reading. A student must complete at least two specialized reading and research courses in the area of his or her specialization to fulfill Doctor of Ministry degree requirements.
Requirements this course will fulfill: Determined by the field of study and indicated by the alpha prefix for the course number (BIB, BNT, BOT, EDU, LDR, MIN, MIS, RES, THE).
Materials required: To be selected by student with approval of the mentor and dean or director of Doctoral Studies.

THE 6903 Practicum: Theology (3 credits)
Through a self-designed theology project, the student is given opportunities for reflection on his or her theology and practice of ministry within a typical ministry environment in a setting, such as a local church, a parachurch ministry, a mission trip, or a Christian school. See course description for MIN 6903 for additional details.
Requirements this course will fulfill: Theology.

THE 6926 Thesis: Theology (6 credits)
This course requires identification of a problem of a practical nature relating to some phase of Christian theology or selection of a topic relating to Christian theology for further research. See course description for RES 6926 for additional details.
Requirements this course will fulfill: Research, Theology.

THE 7813/THE 7823 Specialized Reading and Research: Theology (3 credits)
See “Specialized Studies—All Divisions” at the end of this section for details.
