The posttest is a part of the undergraduate capstone requirement. It is recommended that students begin working on the essay and verbal components of their capstone within six months of graduating. The posttest and graduation follow-up survey should be completed during their last course. All four capstone components must be submitted before requesting the final exam for their last course. There is no cost for these assessments.

Students Studying for Assemblies of God Credentials (USA)

If you are studying this Second Bachelor of Arts degree to satisfy an educational requirement for ministerial credentials with the Assemblies of God (USA), the following two courses are required by the General Secretary's Office: HIS 3123 Assemblies of God History, Missions, and Governance and MIS 1012 Introduction to Assemblies of God Missions. These two courses do not appear in the program above but should be taken as electives.
